

Edwin Douglas of Fulton Died Sunday

Funeral services for Edwin Bowle Douglass, who died at Fulton Sunday evening were held at the Goodman and Eoller Chapel Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The services were conducted by the Rev. H. C. Clark. Burial was in McCollough cemetery in southern Cooper county.

Mr. Douglass was born in Cooper county Dec. 7, 1870. He was married on July 8, 1909 to Anna E. White who died in 1910. A daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Douglass survives.

A brother, J. Robert Douglass of Buncheon and a number of nieces and nephews also survive.

SAFE ON ARUBA

NEW FRANKLIN — Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Fugate Smith of New Franklin and Fayette, have learned that the Smiths, residing on the island of Aruba in the Dutch West Indies, are safe.

The island of Aruba was attacked recently by axis submarines.

Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Smith of Fayette, while Mrs. Smith is the former Miss Priscilla Hughes of near Fayette.

PLEGDED TO FRATERNITY

Bill Brownsberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brownsberger, was recently pledged to the Pi Tau Sigma fraternity at the University of Missouri.

Bill was one of six of a class of 200 engineers of the class of 1942.

Members of the fraternity are chosen on their scholastic standing, personality and on prospects of future advancement.

Mrs. F. D. Smith, Old Lamine, Died Sunday

Services were held today at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday at the Old Lamine church for Mrs. F. D. Smith, who died Sunday morning at 10:55 after a short illness. Burial was in Old Lamine cemetery.

Pallbearers were Robert Thompson, Percy McManis, Elmer Harris, Elwood Harris, Roy Smith and Walter Sheets.

The Rev. Roy Blalock was in charge of the services.

*See back of sheet
for copy of above*

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moehle of Macon, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marie Amelia Moehle to Robert J. Carey.

The marriage will take place Sunday, March 15, at Macon.

Miss Moehle is a niece of Paul Moehle of Boonville. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moehle and family formerly resided here, and have visited in Boonville several times since.