

SEDALIA DEMOCRAT

11 June 1942

5/4

Burial Frank Gregory

Graveside services for Frank Gregory, 75, of Bryson, Mo., who died late Monday night at the Bothwell hospital, were held at 1 o'clock this morning at the Green Ridge cemetery, with the Rev. Green officiating.

William Closser

William Closser, 80, was found dead in bed at his room at 515 East Third street early Wednesday morning. Death was due to a heart ailment. Dr. W. T. Bishop, Pettis county coroner, found after viewing the body.

Mr. Closser, a native Pettis countian was born and reared in the Buncombe neighborhood. He had lived at the East Third street address for a year.

A message telling of his death has been sent to a sister, Mrs. L. R. Williams, of Kansas City. He also is survived by several brothers.

The body was taken to the Gillespie Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Funeral Of Charles Homan

Funeral services for Charles Homan, who fatally shot himself Tuesday night at his home near Smithton, will be held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Smithton Methodist church the Rev. E. J. Weiss, pastor, to officiate.

Burial will be in Smithton cemetery.

Mr. Homan in addition to his wife and two children, Miss Marjorie and Milo Homan is survived by a brother, Ray Homan, Portland, Ore., who will be unable to attend the funeral, and three sisters, Mrs. Jessie Wear, Otterville, Mrs. Bessie Raiffeisen, Sedalia, and Mrs. Clara Smith, Smithton.