
Judge F. M. Smith Is Appointed J. P.

Judge Francis M. Smith was appointed by the county court July 2 to serve out the unexpired term of John J. Stegner as justice of the peace, it has been announced here.

Judge Smith served as justice of the peace for six years during the 1930's. About the time of the first world war he was deputy circuit clerk and recorder for eight years and filled the office of circuit clerk and recorder for a four-year term.

Stegner is now in the army.
