GROUP LEAVES TODAY FOR INDUCTION

55 Go To St. Louis For Final Army Physical Exams

A group of Saline County men included in today's draft quota of fifty-five men left this morning in three busses for Jefferson Barracks. A large crowd of relatives and friends gathered at the meeting place in the Circuit Court room to see them off.

After Democrat-News pictures had been taken and John W. John, draft board member, had given the men their final instructions, Ray Ruckel, captain of the State Guard company here, issued an invitation to the men to drill with the company during their 14-day furloughs. One day of preliminary drill would benefit men going to army training, he told the men. Capt. Ruckel added that in the army the men should conduct themselves as they would in civilian
