

Marshall Daily Democrat News
Sat, April 12, 1947

1/5

---

Joyce Ann Case Rites Were Friday

Services At Sweeney
Funeral Home Conducted
By D. H. B. Smith

Funeral services for Joyce Ann Case, whose tragic death occurred Wednesday, were conducted Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Sweeney Funeral Home by Dr. Harvey Baker Smith, pastor of the Christian Church.

There was a large number in attendance. The sixth grade pupils of the Southeast school, of which class Joyce Ann was a member, with their teacher, Mrs. Ambrose Wilson, attended the service in a body. Girl Scouts in attendance also sat in a body.

The songs, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee" and "In the Sweet bye and Bye" were sung by Mrs. A. N. Ehrnman and Mrs. Frank Evans, accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Barnes.

In charge of the floral pieces were Betty Lee Smith, Lucille Bacon, Ann Powers and Maxine Smith.

Burial as in the cemetery at the Shiloh Methodist Church. Serving as pallbearers were the following school friends, Ray Thompson, Glenn Case, Charles F. Niceley, Harry Hayslip, Thomas Hayslip and Jesse Glavin.

---