

Mrs. Ellen Haley Garrett Is Dead

Mrs. Ellen Haley Garrett died at the home of her son, Joe Haley, at Clark's Fork at 4:30 p. m. Sept. 25. Dr. Glenn L. Farr, pastor of the Baptist Church, conducted funeral services at the Goodman and Boller Chapel Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Burial was in Walnut Grove Cemetery.

Mrs. Garrett is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Henry Stretz of Boonville, and Mrs. Elbert Hood of Amarillo, Tex.; by eight sons, Ernest Haley, St. Louis; Joe Haley, Clark's Fork; Ben Haley, Jefferson City; Herschel Haley, Slater; Jim Haley, Wilbur Haley and Dick Haley, all of Boonville, and Moody Haley of Kansas City; by 40 grandchildren, 12 of whom served in World War II, and 30 great-grandchildren. One daughter, Mrs. Ada Taber, died this year.

Formerly Miss Ellen Seat, she was born in Cooper County, Jan. 30, 1862, and spent all of her life in this community. She was married to William Haley in 1881. He died Dec. 4, 1909.

She was married to Frank Garrett in 1932. Mr. Garrett died in 1939.

Palbearers were Elmer Chenaull, Paul Morrow, O. L. Haley, Walter Stegner, Ed Yarnell, and Les Haley.