

Joe Holman, 13, Dies Unexpectedly

CLIFTON CITY—Funeral services were held at the Olive Branch church near Beaman Thursday afternoon at 2:30 for Joe L. Richard Holman, who died unexpectedly last Tuesday.

The Rev. W. P. Arnold, pastor of the East Sedalia Baptist Church, assisted by the Rev. Elbert Cornelius, pastor of the Olive Branch Church, conducted the rites.

Pallbearers were Eugene Eads, Clay Blaylock, John Cranfield, and Ellwood Embree. Burial was in Salem cemetery. ✓

Joe Holman was 13 years of age, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holman, who reside on a farm located between Clifton City and Beaman. He became ill Tuesday evening and was sick only a few hours before he died. He was a pupil of the Olive Branch School which recently closed, and received the award at that time for perfect attendance.

Surviving are his parents, and twin brothers, Lloyd and Floyd Holman.
