

Mrs. J. A. Wyatt Dies At Home Of Daughter Here

Mrs. Margaret Jane Wyatt, 97 years old, died at 6:45 o'clock Thursday evening at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Peters, 202 Ming Street, where she had lived eight years. She had been in failing health for some time.

Mrs. Wyatt was born in Cooper County September 17, 1858, and was a daughter of John A. and Maggie Jane Rennison. She was reared in Cooper County and was married July 4, 1873, in Boonville to John Andrew Wyatt. After their marriage they came to Johnson County, making their home in the Leeton community where Mr. Wyatt died April 12, 1929.

Surviving are a son, Lester M. Wyatt of Leeton; three daughters, Mrs. Alvie Miller of Albuquerque, N. M., Mrs. Harrison Freeman, 711 Missouri Avenue, and Mrs. Peters; 17 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Miller, who recently visited her mother, is not expected to return for the funeral.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Leeton Church of the Brethren. The Rev. James Mohler of Leeton and the Rev. Kent Naylor of Warrensburg officiated.

Burial was in Mineral Creek Cemetery and pallbearers, who were grandsons, were Forrest Miller and Billy Peters of Kansas City, Dale Miller of Independence, Merle Lynde of Leeton, and Owen Wyatt and Eugene Peters of Warrensburg.
