Rites Saturday

For W. L. Haley

PILOT GROVE—Funeral services for William Lesley Haley, 72, who died Wednesday night at Boone county hospital, Columbia, after an illness of several months, will be at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the Wesley Chapel Methodist church near Pilot Grove. Burial will be at the church cemetery.

The Rev. E. H. Pfeiffer will officiate. The body will be taken to the family home near Pilot Grove where it will lie in state until time for services.

Mr. Haley was born in Pilot Grove, June 20, 1887, to the late James and Mary Botten Haley. He was married on November 1, 1914, to Kathryn Babbitt, who survives.

He was a lifelong member of the Wesley Chapel Methodist church and had been a Cooper county farmer since his marriage.

Survivors besides his wife include one son, Marshall Ray Haley, Pilot Grove; three daughters, Mrs. Donald Barron, Columbia; Mrs. Marvin Schupp, and Mrs. Clarence Riles, Pilot Grove; one brother, Arthur Haley, Pilot Grove; and eight grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Paul Schlotzhauer, Russell Schlotzhauer, George Gander, Charles Leonard and Wilbur Stegner. Honorary pallbearers will be members of the Wesley Chapel Sunday school class, of which Mr. Haley had been teacher for many years.
