

17 Apr 1962

1/2

and the courage to follow them. That these words from nearly 20 centuries ago means outdated in the nuclear age are more urgently appropriate. Tempted into rationalizing greed and of supposed justification for shooting at seek entrance to one's fallout shelter. Love and faith and love of our fellow men Samaritan.

with the co-operation of The Laymen's Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

ips
lant

At An
th several more than Mathieson
day.
d in the
veral fires
t occurred.
hospitali-
was believ-

relations
said the
awoke him
thdown. 30

ere in the
the explo-
crete block
any's 100-
stroyed or losion was mined. It

James Drennen Dies At Fayette Home

James E. Drennen, a Boonville resident and former dairy farmer, died in a Fayette nursing home early this morning.

Funeral arrangements, in charge of Goodman and Boller, are as yet incomplete awaiting arrival of relatives.

He was born in Cooper county, Mo., in 1886, the son of George Washington Drennen and Elizabeth Ellen Drennen.

Set Memorial Service For Harry Wooldridge

The Cooper County Bar association will hold a memorial service for the late Harry Wooldridge Monday. Judge Roy D. Williams, chairman of the memorial committee, stated today that the memorial service will be at 2:30 p.m. at the circuit court room. The meeting will be open to the public.

Read the Want Ads today.

morning, Dr. Winn told them that a "combination of the Kerr-Mills program for the indigent and the near-needy with private, voluntary pre-payment programs for the remainder of our citizens over age 65 can certainly provide the solution to health care financing problems for a part of Missouri's old age group, without imposing compulsory federal programs" on everyone, young and old alike, whether they need or want them or not."

Dr. Winn spoke in Jefferson City to a committee studying health needs of the aged. He is chairman of the medical association's committee on medical economics.

Infant Matthew Klein Dies Early Saturday

Matthew Wade Klein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wray Klein, died shortly after birth Saturday morning at the Gunn Clinic in Versailles.

He is survived by three brothers and one sister.

Mrs. Bertha Klein of Boonville is the paternal grandmother. Graveside Services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. at the Syracuse Cemetery.

No other ancient city equalled the magnificence of King Nebuchadnezzar's Babylon. Today, only foundations remain of the City's Hanging Gardens, one of the seven ancient wonders and the banquet hall where Belshazzar saw the handwriting on the wall.