

E BOONVILLE

LD WIDE NEWS

BOONVILLE, MISSOU

Death Early Today To Basil H. Haley, Services Saturday

Basil Hurt Haley, lifelong resident of Cooper county, took his life at the side of his car near Franklin in Howard county early this morning. He had been in ill health for sometime. Howard county authorities, who investigated, said there would be no inquest.

Funeral services will be held at the Goodman and Boller chapel Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. George Barger of the Christian church officiating. Burial will be in the Walnut Grove cemetery.

Friends may call at the Goodman and Boller Funeral Home from Friday morning until time of the services.

Mr. Haley was born on a farm in Cooper county, September 2, 1902, the son of the late Thomas Benton and Josephine Hurt Haley. He was employed at the Farmer's Elevator for a number of years, and with the Summers Elevator from the time they came to Boonville.

On May 29, 1925, he was married to Miss Ferne Watson, who preceded him in death on May 3 of this year. He is survived by one son, Charles A. Haley of Boonville; two brothers, Edward Haley of Tate, Georgia, and Lloyd Haley of Columbia, Mo.; and one sister, Mrs. Paul Morrow, of Cooper county. He was preceded in death by two brothers and four sisters.

TIRE "BLOWOUT"

mother and two of day afternoon follo Route 5 interchange fered possible head Arthur, age 10, rep Allen Arthur, age passengers were in t Arthur, 14. The th the patrol, the car v over and ended up embankment parall when the accident

Boonville Daily News

*25 July 1963
1/3*