Charles A. Leach Dies in Sedalia; Rites Thursday

OTTERVILLE-- Charles Arthur Leach, 83, for many years a resident of Otterville, died Tuesday morning at a rest home in Sedalia.

The funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Hays-Painter Chapel in Otterville, with burial in the Otterville I.O.O.F. Cemetery.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Mildred Geotz, Sedalia; a sister Mrs. May Varney, Sedalia; a brother, George Leach, Kansas City; and five grandchildren.

Mr. Leach was born August 10, 1881, at Elston, Mo., the son of William T. Leach and Harriott Noel Leach. On September 29, 1912, he was married to Lelah McKinney at Elston. He was a member of the Otterville Baptist Church and of the Otterville I.O.O.F. lodge for more than 60 years.
