Legion Team Downed 6-0 By Douth's Lake

Warrensburg's American Legion Post 131 baseball team went down in defeat in their opening tournament game last night 6-0.

Robert Sturgis, pitcher for Douth's Lake allowed the local team only two hits, no walks and struck out 20 at bat.

Tom Morgan, pitcher for the Warrensburg club walked three players, allowed 11 hits and struck out nine players. Morgan also received the only two hits for the local team.

Tonight continuing in Warrensburg will meet C. & J. Super Market of Kansas City at 5:15 p.m. and follow through tomorrow at 5:15 taking on the Trenton Legion team.

If rain cancels tonight's play the schedule will be moved back one day.
