

20 Aug 1968

3/4 to 6

Miss Homan weds Ronnie Lee Aug. 3 at Otterville church

OTTERVILLE--Miss Delores Lucille Homan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Homan, Florence, became the bride of Ronnie Nelson Lee, son of Mrs. Geraldine Lee, Florence, at the First Baptist Church here. The Rev. F.L. Cole Jr. officiated the double ring ceremony Saturday, Aug. 3, before a background setting of white gladioli, palm and greenery and standards of seven-branch candelabra, entwined with greenery.

Organist George Neltzert, Columbia, uncle of the bride, played traditional wedding selections and accompanied soloist, Mrs. Gary J. Johnson, Sedalia.

Candles were lighted by Charles Billingsby, Sedalia, nephew of the bridegroom, and Charles Homan, Otterville, cousin of the bride.

Escorted by her father, Miss Homan chose a gown of white taffeta over net, fashioned with a scoop neckline and long sleeves. The neckline was trimmed with sequins and the back of the gown featured a bow topping an opened pleat which formed the chapel train. Her short pouf veil of-illusion was held with a pearl crown. Her flowers were a cascade of red roses.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Elmer Broderson, Versailles, sister of the bride, and bridesmaid, Mrs. Donald Homan, sister-in-law of the bride, were attired in identical gowns of pink nylon styled with bell sleeves and detachable trains. The veils of illusion were held with a crown of pearls. Both carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridegroom chose his uncle, James Hart of Smithton, as best man. Groomsman was Melvin Carwile of Sedalia, cousin of the bridegroom. Guests were seated by Donald Lee Homan, Versailles, brother of the bride, and Allan Stahl, Syracuse, uncle of the bride.

Cindy Homan, Versailles, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her attire was styled identical to those of the other attendants. Billy Lee Broderson, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride chose a yellow dress with white accessories and a corsage of white gladioli. Mrs. Lee wore a turquoise dress with navy accessories. Gladioli formed her corsage.

A reception followed the wedding and was held in the church basement. The bride's table, covered with a white lace cloth over pink, was centered with a three tiered cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. A candelabra with tall white burning tapers, wedding bells and pink and white streamers completed the decor.

Guests were registered by the cousin of the bride, Miss Margaret Neltzert, Columbia.

The gift table was attended by Peggy Baker and Judy Homan, cousins of the bride.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Antone Beck, Otterville and Mrs. Allan Stahl, Syracuse, aunts of the bride.

For a wedding trip to the Lake of the Ozarks, the bride wore a three piece pink suit with a corsage of red roses. The couple makes their home at 1820 South Prospect St., Sedalia.