Homer Barrett

CLARK'S FORK—Friends here have received word of the death on Dec. 9 of Homer Barrett of Conran. His death occurred in a New Madrid hospital.

Mr. Barrett was born May 27, 1897, in southeast Missouri. For several years he operated a general store at Gooch's Mill, selling out in 1926. He was postmaster in Conran.

Survivors include his wife, the former Miss Ruty Yount, two sons, four daughters and several grandchildren.

Ernest L. Haller

Funeral services were held Friday, Jan. 10, at St. Germain's Colonial Mortuary in Commerce City, Colo., for Ernest L. Haller, 73; a former Boonville resident.

Haller died Jan. 8 at Mercy Hospital in Denver following a long illness. He was born Nov. 17, 1895, in Boonville. He was World War I veteran, serving overseas until 1923. Following his military duty, he worked for the federal government in the St. Louis area.

He was a member of the John S. Stewart VFW Post No. 1 in Denver and a member of Good Hope Lodge No. 218 A.F.&A.M. in St. Louis. Haller and his family lived in Commerce City a number of years.

Survivors include his wife Mrs. Della J. Haller of the home, several step-children and a sister, Mrs. Stanley M. Kramer, Boonville.

Members of the John S. Stewart V.F.W. Post served as pallbearers for Haller's services. The concluding services and interment were held at Elmswood Cemetery, with committal services performed by Memorial Lodge No. 1 A.F.&A.M., Denver, as a courtesy to Good Hope Lodge No. 218 in St. Louis.

Lowry Air Force Base personnel performed military honors at the cemetery.
