

Mrs. Lula Stephens

Dies; services

To be in Aldrich

Mrs. Lula Belle Stephens, age 86, formerly of Aldrich, Mo., died at St. Joseph Hospital Thursday evening. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Aldrich Methodist Church with the Rev. Charles Burner and the Rev. Mercer Thomas officiating. Burial will be in the Dunnegan cemetery. ✓

~~Friends may call at the~~ William Wood Funeral Home from noon Sunday until 10:30 a.m. Monday.

Mrs. Stephens was born Aug. 21, 1882, in Waco, Texas, the daughter of Jess Young and Isabelle White Young. She was married to T.J. Stephens, and they made their home in Aldrich. Mr. Stephens preceded her in death in 1948.

Mrs. Stephens had made her home in recent years with her children. She was a member of the Aldrich Methodist Church.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. W.H. Degraffenried, of Boonville; two sons, Glen Stephens of Springfield, Mo., and Raymond Leon Stephens of Columbia, S.C.; six grandchildren, one of whom is David Degraffenried of Boonville, and one step-sister, Mrs. Tom Jenkins of Jacksonville, Texas.