

Boonville Daily News
26 May 1976
12/1,2,3

KENNETH NEWTON

PENINSULA — Kenneth Newton, 52, died at the Lakeside Hospital in Kansas City May 20, 1976. He was born in this area Aug. 28, 1923, the son of the late Lewis and Minnie Darling Newton. On Aug. 22, 1946, he married Miss Katherine Conn, who survives, of the home.

After leaving this area he lived in Sedalia and Sweet Springs before moving to Kansas City 14 years ago.

Also surviving are three sons, Kenneth Newton Jr., Overland Park, Kan., Harold Newton, U.S. Air Force in California, Willis Newton of the home; his mother, Mrs. Minnie Newton, Sedalia; and five grandchildren. Funeral services were held May 22 at the Ewing Funeral Home, Sedalia, with the Rev. James R. McQueen, pastor of Epworth United Methodist Church, officiating.

Pallbearers were Eddie Butler, Clifford Spease, Irvin Conn, Charles Conn, David Walk, and John Nowlin.

Newton

EMMA CASE

Mrs. Emma Jane Case of Rt. 1, Boonville, member of a pioneer Cooper County family, died at Ashley Manor Tuesday evening, May 25, 1976 following a short illness. Funeral services will be conducted at 2:00 p.m. Friday at the William Wood Funeral Chapel. Burial will be in Walnut Grove Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home from noon Thursday until service time, with family visitation from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Thursday.

Case Cartner

Mrs. Case was born in Cooper County, the daughter of Charles R. and Anna Lou Haley Cartner. She married James Thomas Case in Boonville in 1903. He preceded her in death March 28, 1939.

Mrs. Case lived her entire life on the family farm five miles south of Boonville on Hwy. B. This land, bordered on the north by the Petite Saline, was homesteaded by her great-grandfather, William Cartner, one of the first settlers in Cooper County.

She was a member of the Mt. Herman Baptist Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Richard

Hartman of Toms River, N.J.; Mrs. William Walje of Boonville and Mrs. Marilyn Kirkpatrick of Columbia; three sons, James Case, Herbert Case and Thornton Case, all of Boonville, and Robert Earl Case of Bun-ceton; 10 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

A son, Charles Edmond Case, preceded her in death.