

2/1

2/3

Sylvester R. Seifert

Sylvester Richard "Fess" Seifert, 81, Otterville, died Friday August 16, 1985 at Bothwell Regional Health Center.

He was born September 20, 1903, in Prairie Home, Mo., son of Moritz and Cardyn Schilb Seifert. On November 17, 1926, in Sedalia, he married Lucille Hallahan, who died in 1982.

He was retired from the Missouri Pacific Railroad, where he worked as a machinist.

Survivors include a son, Edward Seifert, Otterville; a daughter, Mary Lucille Valdez, Aurora, Colo; two sisters, Ida Sands, Ottawa, Kan; Rose Moore, St. Paul, Kan; four grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Funeral service were at 10:30 a.m. Monday at Meisenheimer Funeral Home, Otterville, with the Rev. Anthony Kraff, officiating.

Pallbearers were Walter Dowdy, James Wear, Mervin Ransdell, Bill Mullins, Ronnie Dowdy, and Ray Anton.

Burial was in St. Joseph Cemetery, Clifton City. ✓

The family suggest contributions to the Cancer Society and the Childrens Therapy Center.

Mariana I. Niermeyer

Mariana I. Niermeyer, 60, Syracuse, died Wednesday morning at the Charles Still Hospital, Jefferson City.

She was born March 15, 1925, in Otterville, daughter of Irl and Myrta Rearden Hotsenpiller. On March 24, 1943, in Sedalia, she was married to Andy Niermeyer, who survives of the home.

Mrs. Niermeyer was a member of the Lamine Baptist Church, Otterville. She was employed at Cargill Inc., California, Mo.

Other survivors include four sons, Jim Niermeyer and Bill Niermeyer, both of Jefferson City; Mike Niermeyer, Otterville; Scott Niermeyer, of the home; a daughter, Kathy Graf, Jefferson City; a brother, James Hiller, Lompoc, Calif.; and eight grandchildren.