MADGE A. CASE

Madge Alice Case, 85, Blue Springs, formerly of Independence, died Monday, Jan. 24, 1994, at St. Luke's Hospital.

Mrs. Case was born in Monument, Ore., and moved to this area in 1909. She lived in Independence from 1909 until she moved to Blue Springs five years ago. She was a department manager for the J.C. Penney Co. at the Blue Ridge Mall for 10 years, retiring in 1970. She was a member of the Christian and Professional Women's Club of Independence, United Eastern Democratic Club, Allied Eastern Democratic Club and was chaplain of the 5th District Congressional Democratic Club. She was a member of Fairmount Methodist Church and was its treasurer for 13 years.

Her survivors include her husband, Norman Case of the home; a son, Robert Huff, Boise, Idaho; a brother, Roger C. Fisher, and a sister, Mildred Van Maele, both of Independence; three grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be 1 p.m. Thursday at the Carson Blue Ridge Chapel. Burial will be in Lobb Cemetery. Friends may call from 7 to 8:30 tonight at the chapel. The family suggests contributions to the church.
