

Tracy A. Kempf inducted into honor society

Tracy Ann Kempf, daughter of Darryl and Nancy Kempf of

Boonville, was inducted into Phi Eta Sigma Honor Society at Southwest Missouri State University, Springfield, Mo., on March 1 in a 2:00 pm ceremony. Phi Eta Sigma is a national honor society for college freshman. Its goal is to encourage and reward academic excellence among first year students in institutions of higher learning. All students invited to membership have earned a cumulative gradepoint average of at least 3.5 on a 4.0 scale at the close of any full time curricular period during their first year.

The oldest and largest freshman honor society, Phi Eta Sigma was founded at the University of Illinois on March 22, 1923. There are more than 300 chapters throughout the United States and more than half a million members.

Tracy is a 1997 graduate of Boonville High School.
