Thousand Oaks

Ruth A. Ingertson

Ruth died Thursday, Sept. 9, 1999, at Los Robles Regional Medical Center in Thousand Oaks, Calif.

She was born Ruth Alieene Douth on Jan. 28, 1920, in Independence, Mo., the third of 10 children born to William Absalom Douth and Elma Opal (Dodson) Douth.

Ruth was an elementary school teacher in both Independence and later in Los Angeles, Calif., where she had resided since 1944. On June 18, 1949, in Carson City, Nev., she married Donald Everett Ingertson. She retired from teaching in 1954 with the birth of their first child, preferring to be a full-time wife and mother. Family has always been her passion in life and she was an avid genealogist, researching many lines of her family, back to their European roots as early as the 1500s.

Ruth was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and two brothers.

She is survived by her son, Michael R. Ingertson of Los Angeles; daughter, Donna Gayle and her husband, William David Russell of Thousand Oaks; three grandchildren, William Daniel (Billy) Russell, Andrew Michael (Andy) Russell, and Jennifer Rebecca (Jenny Russell); and four brothers and three sisters and their families.

A private family graveside service will be at 3 p.m. Friday, Sept. 10, 1999, at Valley Oaks Cemetery in Westlake Village, Calif.

Arrangements are under the direction of Pierce Bros. Valley Oaks Mortuary, Westlake Village, Calif.; phone 495-0837.
