

OBITUARIES

8 Oct 1999

Sedalia Democrat 2/2

Virgil L. Taul, 82, Gallatin

Virgil Lee Taul, 82, of Gallatin, died Tuesday, Oct. 5, 1999, at Heartland East Medical Center, St. Joseph.

He was born Aug. 22, 1917, near Santa Rosa, a son of Thomas and Dora Claycomb Taul. On Nov. 20, 1937, in Maysville, he was married to Edna Myrtle Royston, who survives of the home.

Mr. Taul had lived in Gallatin since 1969. He worked in road maintenance for the Missouri Department of Transportation in Daviess County. He retired in 1983. He was a farm manager residing in Coffey and Weatherby for George Montgomery, near Bethany, for more than 25 years.

Mr. Taul was raised and educated in Trenton. He lived most of his life in Harrison and Daviess Counties. He was a member of First Christian Church and a former member of the Lions Club, both in Gallatin. He was a maintenance person for the Senior Citizen Center, Gallatin.

Also surviving are two daughters, Nadine Watts of Gallatin and Linda Kay Edwards of Grand Junction, Colo.; a brother, Vern Taul of St. Joseph; two adopted brothers; four sisters, Mildred Durrell of Sedalia, Mary Wade of Centralia, Lola Mae Bower of Sterling, Colo., and Dixie Lee Grimes of Trenton; five grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Janice Elaine Palmer; and a brother, Bill Taul.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at Bram Funeral Home, Gallatin. Burial will be in Hillcrest Cemetery, Gallatin. Friends may call after 9 a.m. Friday at the funeral home, where the family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m.

The family suggests memorial contributions to First Christian Church in Gallatin or the American Heart Association in care of the funeral home.

Ralph C. Williams, 86, Otterville

Ralph C. Williams, 86, of Otterville, died Wednesday, Oct. 6, 1999, at Tipton Manor Nursing Home.

He was born Aug. 14, 1913, in Morgan County, a son of James A. and Dosa Fowler Williams. On May 9, 1936, in Tipton, he was married to Myrtle Lucile Homan, who survives of the home.

Mr. Williams was a member of First Baptist Church, Otterville, and was a deacon. He was a farmer and lived in the Otterville area all his life.

Also surviving are two sons, Homan Williams of Sedalia and Arthur Williams of California, Mo.; three grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by three brothers and three sisters.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at the church with the Rev. Farrie Cole officiating. Pallbearers will be R.D. Williams, Galen Beyer, William Stahl, Jeff Williams, Melvin Williams and Edward Chamberlin. Honorary pallbearers will be Ronnie Walters, Randy Williams and Estell Williams.

Burial will be in International Order of Odd Fellows Cemetery, Otterville.

Friends may call after 1:30 p.m. Friday at Meisenheimer Funeral Home, Otterville, where the family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday.

The family suggests memorial contributions to the church.

FUNERALS

Jackson, Esther E., 11 a.m. Friday, Crown Hill Cemetery.

McCullough, Garnett L., 1:30 p.m. Friday, Hadley Funeral Home, Windsor; Laurel Oak Cemetery, Windsor.

Siefken, Roland, 1 p.m. Friday, Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home,

CC BY

NEW Home Pr of the big ever Thu to $4.83 the fen-p caused lems.

The s of lawsu of the re took the they did

If a ment, p problem get as Healthy get suc refund

DIEK ON I

Ste was na list at Cape

TWE SCH

Sh recer arshi Miss

M Fair in cri K

a not lish child seri pens acci

NO FO

F Cott nar the Sch con and Con