Mildred Johnson

Funeral services for Mildred Maude Johnson, 90 of Salina, will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Jones/Wilson-Cunningham Funeral home in Locust Grove.

Mrs. Johnson was born May 27, 1909 in Okemah. She died Nov. 22, 1999 in Pryor.

The daughter of John Renison and Fannie Viola (Smith) Renison, she grew up in the Henryetta area and attended High School there. She worked as a boilermaker in shipyards during WWII. On May 4, 1926 she married Clarence Alex Johnson in Weleetka. They lived in Henryetta for 16 years. They also lived near Spavinaw Lake for some time and then made their home in Rose in 1950. They lived there for several years until moving to Locust Grove just a few years ago. Mrs. Johnson was currently living in Salina. She loved to cook and everyone loved to eat her cooking. She cooked lots of meals for people that might just stop by. She was a member of the Salina Baptist Church.

Mrs. Johnson is survived by three sons, Ramon Junior Johnson of South Lake Tahoe, Calif., Kenneth Earl Johnson of Salina, Gene Arthur Johnson of Phoenix, Ariz.; five grandchildren, Rae D. Johnson, of Glenpool, Darrell Gene Johnson of Salina, Patty Toussiant of Tulsa, Donna Jackson of Pryor, Pamela Hays of Denair, Calif.; six great-grandchildren; and a great-great-granddaughter.

She was preceded in death by her husband on March 12, 1996, five sisters, a brother and her parents.
