

The Examiner prints obituaries, without charge, as a service to the community. Family members who wish to have the obituary of a loved one printed are asked to remind the funeral home to send the information to the newspaper. Pictures of the deceased are welcome and must be delivered to the newspaper office at 410 S. Liberty St. in Independence by 8:30 a.m. the day of publication, or by 4:30 p.m. Friday for Saturday's newspaper. The Examiner writes obituaries according to journalistic style guidelines and this newspaper's obituary format.

Trenton B. Case

Trenton B. "Trent" Case, 26, Independence, died Tuesday, Jan. 2, 2001, at his home.

Mr. Case was born Dec. 23, 1974, in Maryville, Mo., and grew up in Burlington Junction and Clinton, Mo., graduating from Clinton High School. He had also lived in Seattle. He was a member of Clinton United Methodist Church and was a residential home construction worker. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Herbert and Emma Case and Jack and Hazel Rice.

His survivors include his parents, Jim and Sheila Case, Branson, Mo.; a brother and sister-in-law, Tony and Rachel Case, Seattle; a nephew, Collin James Case; a special friend, Missy Harris, Independence; four aunts; three uncles; and 14 cousins.

Services will be held at 2 this afternoon at the Speaks Suburban Chapel. Burial will be in Seaside Memorial Park, Corpus Christi, Texas.

Clarence E. Keele

Clarence Everett Keele, 76, Blue Springs, died Wednesday, Jan. 3, 2001, at his home.

Mr. Keele was born Nov. 25, 1924, in El Dorado Springs, Mo. He was a retired superintendent of the Blue Springs Water and Sewer Department. He was a sergeant in the U.S. Army during World War II, and was a priest for the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

His survivors include his wife of 52 years, Atha Irene Keele, of the home; one son, J.D. Keele, Odessa; may call from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Friday at the church. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to the church. Arrangements are under the direction of the Speaks Suburban Chapel.

Charles L. Munger

Charles Leonard Munger, 80, Overbrook, Kan., died Wednesday, Jan. 3, 2001, at Brookside Manor in Overbrook.

Mr. Munger was born Aug. 5, 1920, in Kansas City, the son of Earl L. Munger Sr. and Hazel A. Markley. He was a retired bookkeeper for Adams Toyota, and an Army veteran of World War II.

His survivors include two brothers, Donald M. Munger, Overbrook, and Earl Munger, Gladstone, Mo.; and many nieces and nephews.

Services will be 9 a.m. Friday at D.W. Newcomer's Sons Floral Hills Chapel, Kansas City. Burial will be in Floral Hills Memorial Gardens, Kansas City. Friends may call from 8 to 9 a.m. Friday at the chapel. The family suggests contributions to the American Heart Association.

Jennifer R. Peery

Jennifer R. Peery, 32, Independence, died Monday, Jan. 2, 2001, in Independence.

Ms. Peery was born Oct. 2, 1968, in Seattle and had lived in Independence most of her life. She was a dental assistant and had attended Fort Osage High School.

Her survivors include her parents, George and Sheri Peery, Webb City, Mo.; one son, Sean Sapp, Independence; one sister, Elizabeth Peery, Kansas City; one brother, 10017 E. 36th St. Terrace. Burial will be in Mount Washington Forever Cemetery, with full military rites. Friends may call from 6 to 8 tonight at the church, with a rosary service at 7:30 p.m. Arrangements are under the direction of Mount Washington Forever Funeral Home.

Kenneth C. Schuenemann

Kenneth C. Schuenemann, 72, Independence, died Monday, Jan. 1, 2001.

Mr. Schuenemann was born March 26, 1928, in Atchison, Kan. He was retired from heavy construction work and was a member of the Liar's Club at the Pioneer Restaurant and Local 101 of Operators and Engineers. He was an Army veteran. He was preceded in death by his wife, Marie Schuenemann, and a son, Fredrick.

His survivors include one son, C. Edward Schuenemann, Blue Springs; two daughters, Nola Jean Moyer, Lamar, Mo., and Joanna McNabb, Independence; two brothers, Harold Schuenemann, Ava, Mo., and Raymond Schuenemann; two sisters, Marie Oldfield, Ava, and Helen Anderson, Eureka, Calif.; six grandchildren, Eric and Nick Schuenemann, Michele, Renee and Robbie Joiner and Tiffany Jeffries; a great-granddaughter; and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be 12:30 p.m. Saturday at New Salem Funeral Home. Burial will be in New Salem Cemetery. Friends may call from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Saturday at the funeral home.