

*Boonville
Daily NewsObituaries*Lutetia S. Morris, 106

Lutetia S. Morris, 106, of Versailles, Mo., died Thursday, January 16, 2003 at the Good Shepherd Care Center in Versailles. Memorial services were held Friday, January 17 at the Calvary Baptist Church in Versailles with Rev. Bill Johnson and Rev. Bob Nichols officiating. Arrangements under the direction of Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home in Versailles.

Mrs. Morris was born August 18, 1906 in Cooper County, Mo., the daughter of the Will and Lutetia Mills Byler. She married Samuel E. Morris July 6, 1918. She spent her early years in Prairie Home, Mo., and graduated from California High School. She moved from Boonville to Versailles with her family in 1925, where she spent the rest of her life. She was active for many years in the First Baptist Church, the Eastern Star, the American Legion Auxiliary, and she was a founding member of the Calvary Baptist Church.

She is survived by two sons, William E. Morris of Wilmington, Del., and Harry Leland Morris of St. Louis, Mo.; three grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren, and a sister, Frances Carpenter of Bella Vista, Ark.

She was preceded in death by her husband and her daughter, Lucille Grills.

William J. Wooldridge, 91

William J. "W.J." Wooldridge, 91, of Wooldridge, Mo., died Sunday, January 12, 2003 in Boonville. Funeral services were held 2:00 p.m. Tuesday, January 14, 2003 at the Wooldridge Baptist Church, Wooldridge with Rev. Wayne Merrill officiating. Burial in the Wooldridge Cemetery, Wooldridge. Pallbearers were Bob Wooldridge, Mark Wooldridge, William Hayes, John Wooldridge, Paul Wooldridge, Don Priest, Jim Wooldridge, and Jess Wooldridge.

Mr. Wooldridge was born September 26, 1911 in Wooldridge, Mo., the son of W.J. and Lily Hooper Wooldridge. He married Helen Carpenter in California, Mo on May 18, 1935. She preceded him in death on April 18, 1993. He lived in the Wooldridge community all of his life prior to moving to Boonville in 1985. Mr. Wooldridge was a farmer. He operated the Wooldridge Elevator and the Wooldridge General Store for many years. He was a member of the Wooldridge Baptist Church and the Masonic bodies and Ararat Shrine.

He is survived by numerous nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife; his parents; three brothers, and three sisters.

Memorial contributions are suggested to the Wooldridge Baptist Church or the Wooldridge Cemetery.