

Sedalia Democrat 21 Apr 2008

Thomas B. Nichols, Sedalia

April 21, 2008 - 3:59PM Thomas Benjamin Nichols, 95, of Sedalia, formerly of Otterville, died Wednesday, April 16, 2008, at Four Seasons Living Center.

He was born May 7, 1912, in Otterville, a son of Thomas Franklin and Lena Finley Nichols. On Nov. 25, 1937, he was married to Amy F. Case, who died Jan. 7, 1994.

He graduated from Otterville High School and attended Missouri Valley College in Marshall. He was a member and elder at Otterville Presbyterian Church. He served on the Cooper County ASCS Committee and on the board of Co-Mo Electric Co-op. He was a farmer all his life.

Surviving are a brother, George Nichols, of Sedalia; and several nieces and nephews including, Jack Smith, of Otterville.

He was predeceased by a sister, Mary; and a brother, Clyde.

The body was cremated.

Graveside services will be at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at International Order of Odd Fellows Cemetery in Otterville, with the Rev. Pat Roller officiating.

Arrangements are under the direction of Meisenheimer Funeral Home in Otterville.

The family suggests memorial contributions to Otterville Presbyterian Church.

[From: Sedalia Democrat, Sedalia, MO, 21 April 2008]