THE CONFEDERATE DEAD

The list below of Clay County Confederate soldiers, who were either killed or died while in the servace from 1861 to 1865, was prepared by Commander Phil. W. Reddish of Camp Thomas McCarty. These men went to the front and gave their lives for the Confederate cause. It is to their memory that funds are being raised to erect a monument. You should be a contributor. Read the names of the brave soldiers who left home never to return.
