Foreword

We have a great need to have a place. We need to have the feeling of belonging to a place. A place where we can work with others toward a goal. A place where we can share those happy times, troubled times, and rewarding times. We need a place where we can grow up and achieve individuality. A place where we can receive--because we cannot give that which we do not have. We stand in need of a place to become a person.

We need to have a place before we can leave it and gain a second place.

For we must all, sooner or later, leave our place if we are to finally arrive at the one which God has prepared for us. He does not give us a place to settle down in but to set out from.

With these thoughts as expressed by Dr. Paul Tournier, noted Swiss psychiatrist, author and Christian layman, in his article, "A Place For You," as our theme, we present the 1967 Echo.

Senior Play

"Brother Goose"

The seniors presented "Brother Goose," a three-act comedy on April 7, 1967. The cast included the following: Jeff Adams-Tom, Peggy Winkle-Sandy, Hyacinth Adams-Carol, Carol Adams-Karen, Wesley Adams-Charles, Lenore Hudson-Beth, Eva Mason-Linda, Mrs. Lulu Trimmer-Betty, Sarah Nunsuch-Carol J., Helen-Twila, truck driver-Jerry.

The plot centered around Jeff Adams, an architect by day and general cleaner-upper for his orphaned brother and sister in the evening. Into their hectic midst came Peggy Winkle who brought order, comedy, and romance!

Jeff mistook Peggy for the new maid, and Peggy, tired of selling hosiery, and fond of children, agreed to stay on and help out. But Lenore Hudson had just inherited a million dollars and had commissioned Jeff to build her a new house--which she hoped he would eventually share with her. But Peggy, with the help of Jeff's little tomboy sister, Hy, pulled a few tricks herself, which put the million-dollar baby out of the running.

Hy has dumped wheat puffies in the gas tank so the excavation of Miss Hudson's house will not begin on schedule.

Jeff discovers the invitations in the piano and sends Hy to her room.

Mrs. Trimmer arrives only to discover her plans for the Wee Blue Inn are unfinished.

The seniors autograph memory books while waiting to be served.

Miss Givens, Junior class sponsor, greets members at the faculty table following the blessing of the food by Mr. Rawn.

Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom "Roman Holiday"

"The Hard Times," a band from Maitland, Missouri, furnishes music for the prom.

Servers for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet enjoy the meal after their work is over.

Ann Thompson and Jolene Powell, juniors, cut crepe paper for the ceiling.

Board of Education

Members of the school board check bills to be paid.

MEMBERS OF THE BOARD, Standing: Louis Schleicher, secretary; Charles Brockman, Donald Piepergerdes, vice-president; Eldon Haskell, superintendent. Seated: W. C. Moss, treasurer; Dallas Pickett, president; Donald Kincaid.

Mr. Rawn and Mr. Seifert chat with Mr. Donald Piepergerdes during refreshment time at the September meeting of the Stewartsville Community Club.

Superintendent Eldon Haskell

Mr. Haskell has been superintendent of the Stewartsville C-2 School for eight progressive years. Under his leadership several new programs have been initiated. Some of these are the Neighborhood Youth Corps, the Vocational Business Education Program, the Communicative Skills Project, and the kindergarten program.

In addition to his administrative and teaching duties, he serves as a member of the Executive Board of the Economic Opportunities Corporation of Greater St. Joseph, and is chairman of the DeKalb County Economic Opportunities Corporation. He is also president of the DeKalb County Council on the Arts, a member of the American Legion Post No. 508, and a member of the Stewartsville Lions Club.

He is a busy person, but never too busy to help people with their individual problems. He tries to make them feel that their life and what they do with it is important.

He holds an M.S. in Education from the Drake University. He has also studied at the Biarritz University, Biarritz, France.

Principal George Bishop

Mr. Bishop is a graduate of the Northwest Missouri State College at Maryville, Mo., with a B.S. Degree in Secondary Education. For the past several summers he has attended graduate school at the Kansas State Teachers College, at Emporia, Kansas. He expects to receive his M.S. in education at the end of this summer's term.

Mr. Bishop assists the superintendent in administrative and supervisory duties. He keeps a close check on attendance. When the superintendent has to be away, he is responsible for the school's operation.

During these past four years as principal, he has won the admiration and respect of the student body and those who work with him.

Kindergarten

Twenty-three enthusiastic girls and boys enrolled on June 6 in this eight-week program.

With Mrs. Ardelle Clouse as teacher, their daily activities included a supervised free play period, the salute to the flag, a conversation period, morning snacks, bathroom and drinks, Numbers, Reading, outdoor recess, lunch, Music, and Writing.

Sharing, learning to put things away, cooperating, taking turns, and listening while others talk were a few of the traits stressed.

Introduction and the use of rods were presented in the Numbers Class. Preparing for First Grade Arithmetic was also made by using a readiness workbook, counting, and telling time.

In reading, a readiness workbook was completed and worksheets on finding likenesses and differences, distinguishing sounds of letters, and learning to follow directions were used.

In music students learned how to sing simple songs, to play rhythm band instruments, and to clap, skip, gallop, or walk to music.

At 1:30 p.m. paintings, worksheets, or other prized possessions were gathered together and students boarded the bus for home.

Learning to stand quietly in line, to carry plate, milk, and silver to the table, and to eat in a courteous manner is quite important.

Operating the supermarket helps kindergarten students learn something of the value of money.

Student Council

The Student Council, an advisory student group, has three representatives from each high school class.

Its primary purposes are to serve as a means of communication between the student body and the administration, and to coordinate all school activities. Highlights of this year's activities were the 1966 Homecoming and the crowning of Miss Cardinal at the annual Christmas Dance.

Officers elected to office at their first meeting were: President, Betty Colhour; Vice-President, Carol J. Hamann; Secretary-Treasurer, George Pickett.

Student Council members decorate the gym for the Christmas Dance.

School Publications

The Publications Staff is a member of the Missouri Interscholastic Press Association, Columbia, Mo.

Planning and preparing layout sheets for this "Echo," publishing bi-monthly the "Cardinal Capers," and sending school news to the DeKalb Record Herald, the St. Joseph News-Press and Gazette, and radio stations in St. Joseph and Chillicothe, Mo., were the major projects completed this year.

Each of the twenty staff members were given a part of the yearbook to complete. Jobs ranged all the way from selling advertising to writing copy and cropping pictures.

Editors of the school newspaper was Carol J. Hamann. Her assistant editors were Beth Stevenson and Jeanette Hamann. All members served as reporters. They worked in groups copyreading, typing, and mimeographing the paper.

Mr. Hugh Penniston, representative of the Walsworth Publishing Company, and staff members study Echo layout sheets.

Sharon Roush, second semester staff member, Carol, and Charles watch as Jeanette and Carol J. plan page makeup for the school newspaper.

Stewartsville Community Club

"Values--Keys to our Community Life" was the club's theme for this year.

Some of the programs were: "Customs and Costumes of the American Indian" by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cederstrom and sons, a wildlife conservation program, demonstrations by members of the physical education classes, "Potentials of Suggestive Therapy" by Dr. Gilbert Kelley, "Life With the Blind" by Mrs. Donald Elwell and daughter Linda, and a safety program by Sgt. Johnson of the Highway Patrol.

Classroom visitation in observance of National Education Week was a part of the November meeting. Grade students presented special numbers at each meeting. The devotionals were given by representatives from the community churches.

The club supported the DeKalb County on the Arts and sent representatives to the council meetings. This year the council made arrangements for the Young Audiences, Inc. program which was presented at the school on February 2.

Officers. Program Chairman, Mrs. Marvin Powell; President, Mrs. George Bromley; Vice-President, Mrs. John Smith; Secretary, Mrs. Joseph Grimm; Treasurer, Mrs. Roland Francis.

Teachers are introduced in a "What's My Line" fashion at the September meeting.

Sixth graders present skits depicting the life and adventures of "Peanuts," a favorite cartoon character, at the September meeting.

Members of Young Audiences, Inc. present a musical program for students in Grades One through Nine.

Pep Club

Pep Club members get support from seventh and eighth graders at a home football game.

David Farr adds enthusiasm to the Pep Club yells by beating the bass drum.

Members of the Pep Club form an "S" as a part of the Homecoming pep assembly.

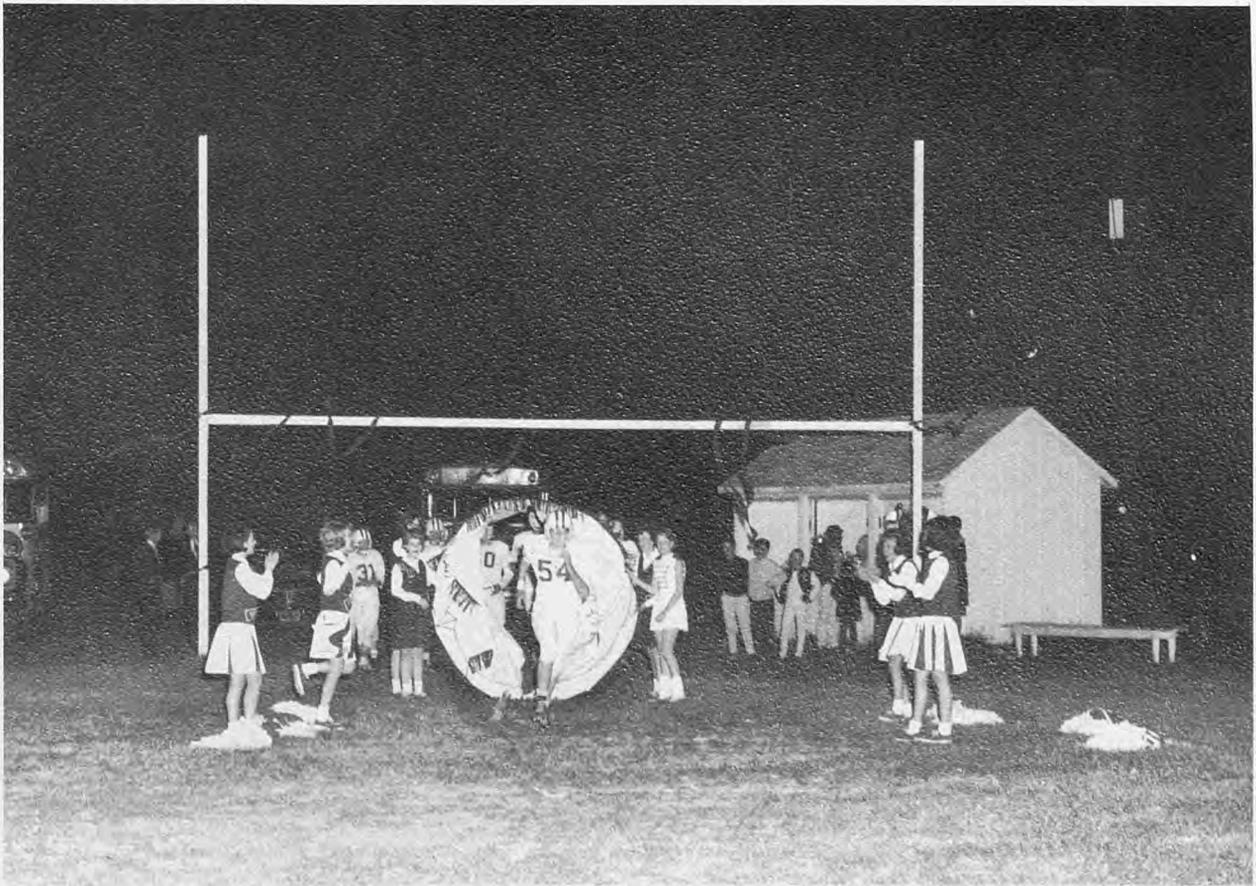

Members and cheerleaders check coats at a stand to raise money to help send the 57-68 cheerleaders to a cheerleading clinic.
