1900th Death Anniversary of St. Paul.

St. Paul is interned in the Basilica of St. Paul, Rome.

SAINT PAUL, a Jew born in Tarsus and a Roman citizen, educated in the school of Gamaliel, was - following his conversion - the most zealous of the Apostles in promoting the young churches. His name and reputation were widely known and, when shipwrecked at Malta on his way to Rome, he and his companions were received with much kindness and hospitality by the islanders. Paul was martyred by beheading in the Neronian persecution in Rome, possibly on the same day as St. Peter.

Jesuits' Westward Journey to Missouri - April 11, 1823 to May 31, 1823

No doubt - Many of the Pioneers interned in this Cemetery used this same route (at least in part) before and after this Journey of the Jesuits.

The following from Fr. Gilbert J. Garraghan, S.J., Comment: JAB
Missouri Province Historian --

The party of Jesuits that left Whitmarsh (Md.) early on the morning of April 11, 1823, to open in the country beyond the Mississippi the first house of their order since its restoration in 1814, consisted of Father Charles Felix Van Quickenborne, superior, master of novices, and general director of the expedition; Father Peter Joseph Timmermans, assistant master of novices; seven Belgian novices, Felix Livinius Verreydt, Francis de Maillet, Judocus Van Assche, Peter John Verhagen, John Baptist Smedts, John Anthony Elet, and Peter John De Smet; and three coadjutor-brothers, Henry Reiselman, Charles Strahan, and Peter De Meyer. With the party were six negroes... Tom, Moses and Isaac with their respective wives, Polly, Nancy and Succy...

Of those named, Frs. Quickenborne, Verreydt, Elet visited the Leake Settlement, later St. Paul's Parish. It was Fr. Elet's recommendation from his February, 1828 follow-up visit on the 1826 "Catholic Families' Petition" to St. Louis Bishop - Joseph Rosati, that led to this First Mission Parish & Cemetery (at St. Paul), North of the Missouri River in 1829. Fr. DeSmet (1801-1873) would make his first trip up the Missouri River in 1838 and would become the only white person trusted by some Indian tribes

St. Paul's Church was closed 10-31-1966. The Church was named to the National Register of Historic Places on 5-31-1979. Recent restoration efforts include restrooms and a Museum. And a 12 o'clock or noon Mass for those visiting this Historic site is held from Memorial Day through Labor Day. The Cemetery is active with descendants - others continuing to be interned here.

Seven Sorrows

ECUADOR

From an oil painting of the Sorrowful Mother dating to 1890, a chromo lithograph copy was made about 1895. The Blessed Mother's heart is transpierced by seven daggers representing her seven sorrows. Her right hand holds the crown of thorns, her left hand the three nails, instruments of the Passion and Death of Her Son. Her tearful eyes look out pleadingly to the world. The picture is preserved in the St. Gabriel College in Quito.

On the evening of April 20th, 1906, all thirty-six boarding students of the College, assembled in the refectory where the picture then hung, witnessed the eyes of the Madonna open and close. On this Friday night this prodigy continued for fifteen minutes. This miracle of "The Sorrowful Mother of the College" was officially investigated and passed upon by ecclesiastical authorities.

The picture was canonically crowned on April 20, 1956 and a series of air post stamps issued to commemorate this 50th anniversary of the miracle. The stamps were issued in two sheets of fifty each, containing alternate copies in low and high values of the "Sorrowful Mother of San Gabriel" and "The Door of the College".
