There was no one like our mother.
When our hearts were light and gay; And was no one like her children was before she passed away.

Dearest mother you have left us Sorrow fills our hearts today; But beyond this vale of sorrow, Tears will all be wiped away.

Mother you are sweetly resting, Cold may be thy silent tomb; But the angels sweetly welcome, You to come and live at home.

She is gone our darling mother,
From this world of sin and care;
She is gone to be with loved ones,
In a world that's bright and fair.
She is gone, Oh how we miss her! Miss her cheerful smiling face; For her very words and actions, Were so sweet and full of grace.

We are weeping, sadly weeping,
For our loss is hard to bear;
Blessed Jesus, give assurance
That her glory we shall share.
