PFC. DELBERT L. SHORES REPORTS AT HOT SPRINGS

Reporting to the army ground and service forces redistribution station in Hot Springs, Ark., Pfc. Delbert L. Shores of Clarence, is now living in one of the four major Hot Springs hotels acquired by the army to house the new installation.

Returned from combat duty in the China-Burma-India theatre of war, Pfc. Shores spent a 22 day furlough with his wife, Mrs. Fannie Shores, at Mexico, and his father, Sankey Shores, at Clarence, before reporting in at Hot Springs. Shores, former employe of the Silver King Coal-tion Mines at Park City, Utah, was accompanied to the resort city by his wife.

He will be in Hot Springs for less than two weeks, waiting reassignment to active duty. The primary function of the redistribution station, to assign the returned soldier to the army job for which he is best fitted, will be accomplished in surroundings designed for rest and relaxation. Under these conditions, expert interviewers and classification personnel secure the maximum cooperation from the returnees.

In addition to reassigning the returned veterans, the redistribution station is equipped to give the soldiers complete medical examinations and administer whatever medical and dental treatment is necessary to fit him for active duty. Military records will be checked and back pay brought up to date.

Aside from his necessary appointments, the veteran will be free to enjoy the resort facilities available at Hot Springs. An extensive program of entertainment and recreation has been planned for the returnees.

Under the direction of the eighth service command, the redistribution station in Hot Springs is one of the five recently set up by the army service forces.

Pfc. Potter was a member of the Methodist church and formerly a member of Boy Scout Troop 81.

Surviving besides his parents are two sisters, Dorothy, a student at the University of Missouri, and Mary Frances, who is employed in Kansas City.
