DIED.

Little Sielous Harrison, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick, departed this life August 26th, 1887 of malarial fever, aged three months. Little Sielous was a very tender and affectionate child, beloved by all who knew him. All was done for the little sufferer by heart-broken parents, sympathizing friends and skilled physicians that could be done but, without avail. The Destroyer's eye that beamed with brightness and love are closed, the hands that wrought his little playthings and toys are still, the body has ceased to throb, the soul has returned to God who gave it. Little Sielous is now with Him who took little children in his arms and blessed them and said "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." We tenderly laid the little one, the mother's jewel and the father's hope, in the silent grave, to await the morn of resurrection, and we leave him there with the prayer, "God be with us till we meet again."

OBITUARY

LeRoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, was born June 17, 1920 and died March 13, 1920 of pneumonia following influenza.

He was the youngest of six children, one of whom died in infancy. Four Mr. Phillips of Shelbina; Mrs. bury of Idaho; Curt of Shelbyville; Mrs. Lloyd of Clarence and Mrs. LeRoy of this city.

LeRoy was a lovely child of a sweet disposition and was loved by all who knew him. He showed his love and thoughtfulness for the family during the last moments of his life by calling each of those present to his bedside and kissing each an affectionate good by asking that each lead a good life. He asked especially that [illegible] taken of his pets and all possessions. He retained consciousness to the last in an able degree for one of his

The scene at his death was a strong plea for a preparation for a future life. Anyone witnessing it could not doubt the existence of Heaven.

Fitzpatrick.

[illegible] Fitzpatrick a respected citizen of near Walkersville, this county, died on Thursday, April 4th at the ripe old age of 79 years, having been born in Kentucky in the year 1822. Deceased joined the Crooked Creek Baptist church when a mere boy and remained a faithful and consistent member until his death.

Eight children survive him; William Fitzpatrick of near Beacon chapel, Richard Fitzpatrick of Walkersville, Adolphus Fitzpatrick of near Greenwood, Oscar and Hester who reside in Shelbina, William Bellow, and Mrs. Frank Reid of Shelbina and Mrs. J. Caldwell of near Bacon chapel. Uncle Tom as he was familiarly known was a good citizen and clever man. On his place near the Walkersville bridge Shelbina people have been holding an annual fish fry for several years and many of them remember his hospitality and kindness on those occasions. The body was interred in the Crooked Creek cemetery. The TORCHLIGHT extends sympathy to the sorrowing family.

Passed is he through the golden gate,
On the golden throne he has trod.
He slumbers peacefully with the good and great,
In the mighty heaven of God.

DIED. Oct 1886

Little Byrd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fitzpatrick, departed this life October, 2d, 1886, of typhoid fever, aged 8 years. Little Byrd's sufferings were intense, yet she bore them with great patience and fortitude. She was a very tender and affectionate child, beloved by all who knew her. She leaves a father, mother, sisters, brothers, and a host of friends to mourn her loss. The sorrows of the family are unspeakable, especially that of her mother. A shadow has fallen upon their hearts that will not be lifted until their own lives enter the great eclipse and sorrow ends. Little Byrd is no more for God has taken her away to the bright beautiful beyond. All bereave her absence and endeavro to meet her at her home in the arms of Jesus. It is so hard to give our darling up but God called her to lay down her burden at her mother's feet and to come up higher.

I know dear Byrd is at rest,
No more to hear her gentle voice,
She's happy on her Savior's breast,
Which makes us all rejoice.

In health we loved her,
In sickness still more dear,
When nothing else could be done,
We shed the sympathizing tear.

For The Torchlight.

DIED—Little Alpha, son of and Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick, departed this life November 2d, 1886, of typhoid fever, aged 4 years. Little Alpha was a constant sufferer until death came to relief. He only survived his birth 31 days. Death has visited that home and taken away two dear ones in one month. To the grief stricken parents we extend our heartfelt sympathy, and hope that they may take consolation in the thought that their darling was taken before it had grown familiar with the ways of sin. It is hard to give our darling up, but God's finger touched him and he slept. He sleeps well because he sleeps with Jesus; then sleep on, dear Alpha, and take thy rest. God called thee home, he thought it best.

Oh! father, and mother weep not for your darling boy,
Who is now at perfect rest,
He is just across the river now,
With the holy and the blest.

Death of Mother.

Once again the angel of death come into our home and with his icy fingers snapped the golden thread of life, bidding our mother to pass through the beautiful gate and henceforth walk the gold-paved streets of the City of God.

Mrs. Amanda Frances Goe (nee Fitzpatrick) was born in Barbon county, Ky., Jan. 26, 1832. Died at her home in Kansas City, Mo., March 23, 1913. Aged 81 years, 1 month and 25 days.

Mother was united in marriage to Geo. T. Goe March 10, 1857. To this union were born 8 children, 5 sons and 3 daughters. Two daughters and one son, also our father, preceded mother in death and were waiting to receive her at the Golden gate. Mother came from Kentucky to Missouri with her parents when 9 years of age and lived here the remainder of her natural life. She has left her life work as a rich inheritance, worthy of imitation, to her family and friends. Her heart that pulsed so true and warm with love of kindred, with friendship and kindly sympathy for all mankind, can never be touched to sadness by others' sorrows or warmed to life by others' joys. In the beautiful casket beneath whose lid is the placid face with its soft band of silver hair, the fragile hands are folded in rest. Another motherly face is gone and the lips that spoke a thousand messages of love and hope to her children and friends are cold and voiceless in earth's last, long dreamless sleep.

Mother left us a little after noon on Easter Sunday. Crossing the Great divide with a fortitude that has graced none more fair, she took leave of life without a fear. Through weeks of suffering she looked calmly into the future—did not falter with her heroism born of her supreme faith in Jesus of Nazareth she approached the end, telling with her latest breath the high note of exultation, as one who knocks at the gates of eternal morning. She had passed her fourscore years—a long life and to us how beautiful! Each returning Easter time, when the lilies and the spring flowers hold their carnival, will recall to us the passing of the sweetest character we have ever known. Shrouded in her robe as she had designed it, asleep beneath the beautiful floral offering that fain would have kissed her eyelids to awakening, we took her back to her old home in Shelbyville and laid her to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Her funeral was preached by Rev. G. W. Humphrey from the Baptist church, of which she was a member several years ago.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

God in his wisdom has recalled
The boon of love he'd given,
And while her body moulders here
Her soul is safe in heaven.
