He was converted and united with the Morris Chapel Methodist church in middle age. After coming to Clarence husband and wife worshiped at the Center street church. His attendance was interfered with by deafness and general ill health.

F. Edwards, Mrs. J. C. Noel, Bert Hopper, Frank Hughes, with Mrs. Emmet Sage at the piano. Pallbearers, Frank Griswold, W. E. Naylor, Lee Wells, E. J. Conrad, Ed Daniel, and Cleve Adams. These same gentlemen also officiated as pall bearers at the funeral of Mrs. Clark.

The age of the deceased was 85 years, 2 months and 14 days. Another native born pioneer of Shelby county has departed from us. He was a kind and indulgent parent. He was a good patient, easy to wait on and no bother to those who cared for him in his decline. He expressed himself as ready to go at any time the Lord might in His divine wisdom choose to call him home. His three daughters and their husbands did the part of dutiful children to him in his time of feebleness and pain. And a good reward awaits them for their service of love.

"A precious one from us is gone,
A voice beloved is still.

A place is vacant in our homes,
Which never can be filled."
