

MRS. JANE MORRISON HALL

Mrs. Jane Morrison Hayes Hall was born in Macon county, near Maud, Nov. 1, 1877. She was the daughter of Samuel David and Panola Ames Hayes. She passed away Feb. 14, 1938 at 2 p. m., on her 27th wedding anniversary. Her husband, Dr. Earl Hall, and her father preceded her in death.

She became a Christian early in life and united with the church, and had given a great many years of service to the Center Street Methodist church, of which she was a member. She has served on the board of stewards for several years, and was secretary of the Delta Alpha class. She was very fond of music and gave it much of her time and talent. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and held the office of warder at the time of her death. Mrs. Hall spent most of her early life in Shelby county and the vicinity of Clarence.

Her surviving relatives are her mother, Mrs. Panola Hayes, of Clarence, and brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes, of Chicago, Ill., besides a number of cousins and her aunt, Mrs. Susan McClendon.

Her funeral was held at the Center Street Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by her pastor, Rev. O. C. Stapleton.

The pallbearers were M. A. Long, F. W. Boring, Everett Heynen, E. J. Conrad, Ollie Dale and O. O. Hedrick.

It can be well said of Mrs. Jane Hall "that she went about doing good."

Mrs. J. H. McClendon returned to Clarence Saturday, Feb. 12 from Kansas City where she had spent a couple of months with her son, Jay McClendon. She was at the bedside of Mrs. Jane Hall during her illness and death.

Former Clarence Man Succumbs to Heart Affliction.

Word has been received here by relatives of the death of Mina H. Lewis, former Clarence banker and business man, which occurred at a hospital at his home in Harlingen, Texas, last Wednesday afternoon. He had been seriously ill of a heart ailment for two weeks previous to his death.

The son of Aaron and Rosa Lewis, he was born on a farm south of Clarence on May 29, 1871. He was first associated in business with his father-in-law, Michael McCarty, in the McCarty and Lewis Elevator, now the Farmers Elevator. Then for a number of years he was engaged in the hardware business with John and Sam McCarty. Later he served as cashier and then president of the Clarence Savings Bank.

After moving to Texas, Mr. Lewis was first employed with a real estate company. Since then, he had been in the retail poultry business.

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Lou McCarty, whom he married on Oct. 10, 1896; three sisters, Mrs. Kate Cross of this city, Mrs. Sam Sanner of south of Clarence, Mrs. Hugh Caldwell of Leonard; and one brother, Ed Lewis of Montana. One sister, Mrs. Porter Robuck, preceded him in death.

A brother-in-law, John McCarty of Clarence, and a sister-in-law, Miss Margaret McCarty of Oklahoma City, left last week to be present for funeral and burial rites which were held in Harlingen Sunday.

DEATH OF J. P. ROEBUCK

James P. Roebuck, son of Henry K. and Rhoda Roebuck, was born Feb. 11, 1852, departed this life March 6, 1938 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Alexander Whites.

He was united in marriage to Martha Jo Cox, Jan. 15, 1874 and five children were born to this union. Neva and Omer preceded him many years ago. The living children are: Luther, of Cairo, Mo.; Mrs. Hattie Whites, of Clarence, Mo., and Harry, of Excello, Mo.

He also leaves three grandchildren, two great grandchildren, one brother, Lee Roebuck, of Dallas, Texas, many nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

He united with the Fairview Christian church about 20 years ago, of which he has been a loyal member.

A short service was held at Fairview, but the regular service was held at Salem, where his wife and children are buried.

Services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Sneed, of Clarence.

NAZI ORGANIZER WAS IN CLARENCE

A mysterious hitch-hiker, whose suitcase contained a Nazi uniform and credentials showing his connection with that organization in the United States, rode from Lakenan to Clarence with Tom Riley about six weeks ago. Mr. Riley, who delivers the Hannibal

Mrs. Nora Lewis Robuck, wife of the late Porter S. Robuck, died at the St. Elizabeth Hospital at Hannibal at 8:00 o'clock Friday morning at the age of 55 years. She had been in failing health for some time, and seriously ill since Monday morning when she underwent a major operation.

A daughter of the late Aaron and Rosa Lewis, Mrs. Robuck was born in Shelby county on December 2, 1881. All her life had been spent in this community, where she had filled an important place as neighbor, friend and mother.

At the age of three, she was baptized by Rev. Dayhoff of the Methodist church. In 1904 she was converted and baptized by Rev. J. T. Kimbrough, at the Holiness church, south of Clarence.

On February 22, 1900, she was united in marriage to Porter S. Robuck, who preceded her in death March 28, 1935. They located on a farm south of Clarence where they lived their entire married life. To this union three children were born: Mrs. Howard Thompson, Clarence, Mo.; Pauline Robuck, Hannibal, Mo., and Katherine Robuck, at home. She had one little granddaughter, Charlotte Ann Thompson.

Other surviving relatives are: Three sisters, Mrs. Willis Cross, Clarence, Mo.; Mrs. Hugh Caldwell, Leonard, Mo.; and Mrs. Sam Sanner, Clarence, Mo., and two brothers, M. H. Lewis, Harlingen, Texas and J. E. Lewis, Kalispell, Mont.

Rev. J. S. Sneed assisted by Rev. Oscar Rogers, had charge of the services at the Holiness church. The large congregation present bore silent tribute to this loved one. Burial rites were held in the Maplewood cemetery at Clarence.

Say, why should we grieve for mother, Who is safe on Canan's shore, Released from her hurtful foes, She is not lost, but gone before. How many painful days on earth Her spirit numbered o'er! She now enjoys a Heavenly birth, She is not lost, but gone before. Secure from every mortal care, By sin and sorrow vexed no more, External happiness she now shares; She is not lost, but gone before.

MRS. JOHN POLLARD DIES

Lula Lee Killinger was born December 16, 1873 near Leonard, in Shelby county, Missouri, the daughter of George and Emma Killinger. When she was rather young they moved east of Hagers Grove, near Morris Chapel Methodist church, where she was converted and joined the church when she was 16 years of age.

Her father died in 1922 and her mother in 1925. The only brother, Addison Killinger, died in Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 16, 1937. She has a younger sister Mrs. Clara Spencer, who lives at Lakenan. She has quite a number of more distant relatives and many friends who mourn her going.

She was married to John Pollard October 8, 1896. To this union three sons were born, William and Charles at home and Frank, who lives in Kansas City, Mo. She has one grandson, Frank Pollard, Jr.

Mrs. Pollard had the misfortune of suffering a paralytic stroke August 19, 1926. Thru all these years she had been a constant care, especially for six years she had been absolutely helpless. Her husband and sons were very faithful in their care of their mother until death.

Her funeral was held by her pastor, Rev. O. C. Stapleton, and assisted by Rev. C. J. Quinn, pastor of the Nazarene church, and was held in the Methodist church. Burial was in the local cemetery. Milton & Barkeley Funeral Directors were in charge.

Death of Mrs. Crawford

Alice Solome Crawford, daughter of the late Thomas Benton and Anna Fries Crawford, was born in Shelby county, Mo., near Hagers Grove, March 20, 1877. She passed peacefully to eternal rest May 18, 1938 at the family home near Clarence, Mo.

She was married to Chas. M. Crawford, March 29, 1914. Two children were born to this union, Helen and Chester, of the home, whom, with the husband, survives. She is also survived by her sisters, Mrs. Sallie Duncan of near Clarence; Mrs. Mabel Wright of near Leonard; Mrs. Cora Legere of Patterson, Calif.; Mrs. Mary Engle of Shelbyville, and one brother, W. D. Hutchison, of Vandalia, Mo. Also surviving are several nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews and many friends. She was preceded in death by her father, mother, one sister and five brothers.

We have lost a good wife, mother, sister and aunt. Her life was crowded but she lived it fearlessly for the right, both morally and spiritually. She leaves to her children a life of loving service, useful and unselfish. May her love for her family hover over them in peaceful benediction as the queen of the home passes to the paradise of God.

My life is but a weaving Between my Lord and me, He chooses all the colors And works on steadily.

Ofttimes He weaveth sorrow And I, in blinded pride, Forget He sees the upper And I the underside.

Not till the loom is silent And the shuttles cease to fly, Shall God unroll the fabric And show the Unknown Why

The dark threads are the Needful: In the weaver's skillful hand, As the threads of gold and silk, Is the pattern He has planned.

The funeral was held at the Methodist church, Friday afternoon, May 20, at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. O. C. Stapleton. Burial was in Maplewood cemetery.

DEATH OF JOHN ROBERT EVANS

John Robert Evans son of W. L. T. Evans and wife was born April 19, 1856, at Landmark, Howard county. He passed away at the home of his daughter, January 19, 1938. Being 81 years, 9 months of age. He received a good education when a young man and was a successful school teacher for many years.

June 1, 1881 he was married to Emma Florence Hutton. To this union five children were born. Willie and Mamie dying in infancy. He leaves to mourn his going three children, Mrs. Oscar Tracy, Clarence, Mo., Mrs. Hattie Furger-son, Pasco, Washington, Willbur H. Evans, of Othello, Washington. He also leaves twelve grand children, and eleven great grand children and one sister, Mrs. Nina Parr, of Washington, and a host of friends and former pupils. Having taught school in Shelby, Randolph, Macon and Monroe counties.

Fifty-two years ago he founded Enterprise building the first store and conducting general merchandise for several years.

For the past ten years he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Oscar Tracy and family who have tenderly cared for him. He was sadly afflicted for a number of years having been both blind and deaf.

One by one our friends are falling

Soon we, too the call shall hear, Have we on the wedding garment,

Knowing that our Lord is near? Have you gained the victory over All the powers of death and hell,

Through the Savior? Then you're trusting, Waiting, knowing all is well.
