

John Harvey Gwynn, son of John and Emma Gwynn, was born near Cleveland, Ohio, May 12, 1858, and died at his home north of Lentner April 17, 1936 at the age of 77 years, 11 months and 5 days.

At the age of 12 he moved with his parents to Shelby county, Mo., where he had spent the rest of his life.

On April 17, 1883 he was married to Belle Pollard, who departed this life July 19, 1892. Two children were born to this union, Mrs. W. T. Carroll, deceased, and Mrs. H. P. Gaines, of Shelbyville. In 1903 he was married to Miss Ida Smith, of Clarence, who with two children, Mrs. Joe Smith, of St. Charles, Mo., and Weldon, at home, and a foster daughter, Mrs. Thos. Cook, of Clarence, to whom he gave a father's love and devotion, survive.

The following grandchildren: Edith Carroll, Genevieve Gaines, Vivian Gaines Mahoney, Joe Smith, Jr., Betty Jo Smith, Jeane Gwynn, Shirley Gwynn and Charles Cook, and one great grandson, Micky Mahoney, also three brothers, Will of Panhandle, Texas; Sam of Leonard, and Ben of Shelbyville, and a host of other relatives and friends survive.

In early life he made the good confession in the Christian church under the ministry of Eld. E. C. Browning. He was a faithful Christian the remainder of his life.

The funeral was held at the Lentner Christian church at 2 p. m. Sunday, April 19. Rev. Rolla G. Sears, of Clarence, who is also pastor of the church at Lentner, preached the sermon. His text was from Heb. 9:27 "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment."

The funeral songs were sung by a selected choir and Edna Carroll sang as a solo "How Beautiful Heaven Must Be." Mrs. J. H. King was at the piano. The pallbearers were Clyde Porter, Johnnie Carroll, Tom Eaton, Wade Turner, Hanford Carroll and Jim Haglin. Interment was at Shelbyville cemetery.

Ulysses T. Darr Dies

Ulysses T. Darr, son of William and Sarah Darr was born in Illinois Jan. 4, 1867, and departed this life June 8, 1935 at the age of 68 years, 5 months and 4 days.

He came with his mother when a boy to Missouri where he spent the remainder of his life.

He was united in marriage to Miss Mollie Long, Jan. 11, 1891 and to the union two children were born. He leaves to mourn their loss a widow, one daughter, Mrs. Geo. Farmer, of near Clarence, one son, Alva, at home. Also three grandchildren, Mrs. Virgil Cook of Clarence, Mrs. Stanley Graves, of near Anabel, and Loren Farmer, of near Clarence, one sister, Mrs. Rosa Olson, of Eureka, Calif., one brother of Alexandria, Mo., and a host of other relatives and friends.

He was a kind and loving husband, father and grandfather, and a good neighbor.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Sunday, June 9, at Ebenezer church, conducted by Rev. K. H. Ladman and burial was in a nearby cemetery.

James Franklin Graves, son of William R. and Pearlina Graves was born May 9, 1860 in Middle Fork township, Macon county, Mo., on his father's homestead which is now the John Tooley farm, where he lived until his marriage to Sarah M. Judy on March 12, 1884. One year after his marriage he moved to his present homestead four miles south of Anabel, where he lived more than half a century, until his death on June 2, 1937 at 11 a. m.

His wife preceded him in death on September 9, 1933. Since then he has been cared for by his daughters, Mary and Ida Graves, who have made their home with him. He often expressed a desire to pass on and join his life companion in that great undiscovered land, where no traveler returns.

He was well and widely known in Macon county, having lived there for 77 years, and was one of her most respected citizens.

He was a man of few words, plain spoken, sincere, sometimes abrupt, but deeply attached to his family and his friends. He was the special friend of young people, always hopeful and courageous.

Mr. Graves was an active business man until a few years ago, when he was overcome with ill health.

He was the father of five children, all of whom survive him; Cleveland Graves of Anabel; Mrs.

Luther Robuck of Cairo; Albert Graves of Shelbina, and Mary and Ida Graves of the home. He is also survived by six grandchildren, two brothers, Lee Graves and Green Graves of Anabel, two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Richardson of Anabel and Mrs. Belle Rowe of Macon, and a host of relatives and friends.

Amid a splendor of flowers, he was laid to rest at Graves Chapel cemetery, near the place that gave him life. We know that he has found that peaceful repose he so often longed for.

Funeral services were held Friday, June 4, at 2:30 p. m. by the Rev. Carl Schneider of Atlanta, with a large group of relatives and friends in attendance.
