

35
formerly of this section, was brought to Clarence for burial Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Maplewood cemetery. Mr. Lowery was 54 years of age at the time of his death at St. Joseph, Mo.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Della Lowery, two children, Mrs. Violet Roe, and Glen Lowery, of Kansas City; four brothers, George Lowry of Macon, John, Fred and Frank Lowery, of near Macon; three sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Peters and Mrs. Maggie O'Rourke, both of near Macon, and Miss Lena Lowery of Kansas City. / 932

OBITUARY

Frank J. Daniel, son of Pleas and Mary Jane Daniel, was born near Jacksonville, Mo., August 15, 1875 and came to Shelby county when seven years of age.

He departed this life March 21, 1933 at the age of 57 years, 7 months and 6 days. He was married to Emma Bunn, October 27, 1895.

To this union seven children were born, of which three remain to follow him: Homer T., and Aquilla F. of Clarence, and Mrs. Fred C. Bolow, of Shelby, and one grandson, Billy Gene Daniel. He also leaves his wife and five brothers, Logan, Hagers Grove, W. J. and Rev. C. R. and Tom of Clarence, and Other, of Alhambra, Calif.

He became a Christian in 1898 under the ministry of Arthur Elliott at Maud, Mo. He proved his Christian life by worshipping God, and his love to man, by the life he lived with his neighbors.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Revis, at Union church, Thursday, March 23, when a large audience of neighbors and friends had come. The flower offering was large and beautiful. ***

1865 - 1933 JOSEPH PURDY DIES.

Joseph E. Purdy, a well known farmer of south of Clarence, passed away at his home Tuesday afternoon, March 14, after two weeks illness suffering from pneumonia.

He and his family have been well known and have a host of friends who regret to hear of his death. He was a member of the Holiness church and has lived a consistent Christian life.

Joseph E. Purdy, son of Henry and Sarah Purdy, was born in Ohio 67 years ago. He came with his parents to Missouri and was married here to Miss Alverda Dicks.

Besides his widow he is survived by three daughters and two sons, Mrs. T. C. Timbrook of Hannibal; Mrs. Otis Mapes of West Burlington, Iowa; Mrs. F. W. Bradshaw of Kansas City; Hobart M. Purdy, of Kansas City, and Wayne Purdy of near Clarence, also seven grandchildren and one greatgrand child.

He also leaves one sister, Mrs. John Minnick, and seven brothers, Wm., of Lentner; George of near Clarence; Alfred of Macon; John, of Moberly; Frank of Lentner; Albert of California, and Lyman of Colorado.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at Union church.

CLARENCE MERCHANT DIES

J. B. Roy, Popular Young Business Man Passed Away Tuesday

The entire community regretted to learn of the death of Jimmy Roy which occurred Tuesday morning.

He had been in declining health since last fall, and had visited many doctors, hoping that his health might be benefited. However, his case was pronounced incurable and his health has continued to decline.

James Bright Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roy of this city, was born near Hagers Grove on January 20, 1896, and was 37 years of age at the time of his death.

He was married to Miss Ruth Gable, also of the Hagers Grove community November 29, 1916. They resided on a farm a number of years and from there moved to Clarence seven years ago where he assumed a partnership with his father, W. Ed Roy, in the clothing business.

During his residence here a very large group of friends have become his admirers, and the community suffers a loss with his passing.

Besides being in business here, he was a member of the city council, and for the past year has been president of the council.

Besides his widow he is survived by one son, Elgin, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ed Roy, two brothers, Carl and Raymond, and three sisters, Mrs. Pauline Durham, Mrs. Virginia Dorrell and Mary Annis Roy, all of this city.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Christian church conducted by Rev. Shoemaker of Macon, and assisted by Rev. Wm. Rutherford of this city. Burial will be made in Maplewood cemetery.

MRS. B. P. RUTLEDGE DIES

Well Known Resident Buried in Clarence Sunday

Mrs. B. P. Rutledge, one of our prominent and well known citizens, passed away at her home in this city Friday morning about five o'clock. She suffered a stroke of paralysis three weeks ago and had continued to grow weaker until her death occurred. She and her husband have been very influential and highly respected and their host of friends regret to learn of her death.

Frances Dorothy Rutledge, daughter of Henry and Frances Schmidt Bolling his wife, was born June 21, 1861 in Beloit, Wisconsin, and was past 72 years of age at the time of her death. She came with her parents to Shelby county in the year 1866 settling on the old Bolling homestead southeast of this city. She has continued to reside near Clarence or in the city the remainder of her life.

She was first married to George P. Weisenborn October 27, 1883 and two sons were born to this union, George and Willie, both of east of Clarence.

She was married second to B. P. Rutledge October 22, 1917 and since their marriage has resided in Clarence.

In early life she united with the old Zion Methodist church. Her life will always be a reminder to her family, a devoted mother.

She is survived by her husband, B. P. Rutledge, her sons, Willie and George, and six grandchildren, Lamar, Preston, Laverne, Billy Lee, Frances Bell and Claude Leon. She is also survived by six brothers, Mox, Hugo, William, Paul, Enno and Hans Bolling, and one sister, Mrs. P. Johnson, of Milwaukee.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Methodist church conducted by Rev. Wm. Rutherford, and burial was made in Maplewood cemetery.

L. C. STOVER

Kittie Arbelia Arnett was born July 7, 1859 in Shelby county near Leonard and passed away Saturday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock, March 25, 1933 at her home north of Clarence where she had lived for about 43 years.

She was married to L. C. Stover February 16, 1882, to this union was born four daughters, Sybel, Judeth, Neva Arnett Willey, L. V. Cassie and Kittie Mildred. Only one daughter, Miss Sybel, survives her. The other daughters with her husband having preceded her in death.

Mrs. Stover was almost a life member of the Christian church at Hagers Grove, having united with this church in early life. She was a devoted wife, a loving mother, a kind neighbor and loved by all who knew her.

Besides the one daughter, Miss Sybel, who has been so faithful in caring for her, she leaves to mourn their loss, one brother, Dr. Arnett, of Clarence, Mo., two grandchildren, Mrs. Edyth Wise, of Macon county, Carl Copenhagen of Clarence and two great grandchildren, Richard Dean Wise and William Arnett Wise, together with a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at Hagers Grove Christian church, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. J. L. Shoemaker, of Macon. Burial was made in Hagers Grove cemetery.

Aged Resident Dies

John Chelne, a resident here since the early days of the town, passed away at his home Monday evening after being in declining health the past year. He was an early merchant here and for many years operated a mill and elevator. He later conducted a feed store, but retired from active business many years ago.

He was born June 21, 1841 in Sweeden and after his marriage in that country to Miss Martha Anderson, came to the United States to make his home settling first in Illinois and later coming to Clarence. He and his family have been residents here for forty years.

He has been an influential citizen and a staunch member of the Swedish Lutheran church. His wife preceded him in death five years ago.

He is survived by four sons and three daughters, Mrs. George Gustafson and Andrew Chelne, of Galva, Ill.; William Chelne of Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Sam Rickey, Victor and Miss Alga at home. There are also a number of grandchildren three of whom were reared in his home, Mrs. W. W. Day of Tulsa; Mrs. C. Dehner of Shelbyville, and Mrs. Alva Keith of Edina.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the residence conducted by Rev. Danie Martin, and burial was made in Maplewood cemetery.

MRS. MARY WALKER PASSED AWAY MONDAY

Mrs. Mary D. Walker, well known citizen of this community, and the mother of a large family who are well known and prominent, passed away at her home Monday morning, March 20, after several months of declining health. Her death was probably caused from the infirmities of old age.

She was born in Macon county, December 15, 1852 and had spent her entire life in the community where her death occurred. She was past 80 years of age at the time of her death. She was the daughter of Wm. R. Graves, a representative of an old Virginia family.

She was married to R. H. Walker and they continued to make their home on a farm in the community of her birth. On this homestead they reared a fine family. Her husband preceded her in death, having passed away July 21, 1923. She was a member of the Graves Chapel Christian church and lived true to her faith.

After her husband's death, her son, Frank, came from Montana to help care for his mother and to operate the farm, and one daughter, Miss Birdie, remained at home to care for her.

She is survived by six sons and four daughters namely, Frank and Miss Birdie at home, Lonnie, of Shelby, Riley of Macon, R. N. of Clarence, Glenn of Arkansas, Edgar of Macon, Mrs. W. B. Brewington of this city, Mrs. Wm. Alridge of Long View, Wash., and Mrs. N. S. Miles of near Clarence. Also by a number of grandchildren and the following brothers and sisters, Robert, Newt, Franklin, Lee, Green Graves, Mrs. Ursley Jane Richardson, Mrs. B. Richardson and Mrs. Belle Rowe of Macon.

Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 and burial was made at Union.

MRS. ANNA ROSE DIES

Anna Margaret Stockton was born November 10, 1856, in Illinois. She departed this life March 15, 1933, making her 76 years, 4 months and 5 days of age.

She was united in marriage April 23, 1874 to Hiram Rose, who preceded her in death March 7, 1924.

She and Mr. Rose have resided in Missouri since moving here in the early years of their married life.

She was a faithful member and follower of the Hagers Grove Christian church.

She leaves to mourn her departure 5 sons and 3 daughters, namely James, who made his home with her, Mrs. Rosie Simmons of Novelty, Elizabeth Simpson, Steve, Earl and Add, of Hagers Grove, Katie Rogers of Cherry Box, and Bryan, of Kansas City, also a brother and sister, Charley Stockton and Mrs. Doll Clayton of Illinois. There are 29 grandchildren, 21 great grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at Hagers Grove Christian church Friday, March 17 at 10:30 a. m. conducted by Rev. J. L. Shoemaker, of Macon, a former pastor. Burial in Hagers Grove cemetery.

Mother

What a world of tenderness,
Happiness and pain,
Mingled all together
In one sacred name.
Thru the years your smile and tears have guided me always,
May God in all his goodness
Grant you resting days.