

Death of Mrs. Harry Tuggle.

The death angel again visited our midst Monday evening and snatched away one of our most noble and kind women. Mrs. Virginia Denner Tuggle will be sadly missed by her many friends.

She was born Nov. 24, 1891 five miles north of Shelby. There it was she spent her childhood and received her education. Early in life she united with the Baptist Church and remained a consistent member until her death.

She was united in marriage to Harry Tuggle Feb. 26, 1908 and in 1913 they moved to this city. All was done that loving hands could do, sparing neither pain nor expense to restore her to health but God-willed it otherwise.

She leaves a husband and one child, Harry Jr., 17 months of age, one sister, Mrs. Maudie Dehnner, of Kansas City, one brother, Harry Dehnner, of Hannibal, and father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dehnner, of Shelby.

Funeral services will be held today at 1:30 o'clock, conducted by her pastor, Rev. G. A. Mitchell. The remains will then be taken to Shelby and interment in the Shelby cemetery.

Earl Jamison Dead

Word was received here Monday announcing the death of Earl Jamison, of Spanish influence. He was a son of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Jamison of this city and was reared here. He was 37 years of age and was station agent at Rosa.

Mrs. Ragland Dies. 1927

The many friends and relatives and the community as a whole were shocked Sunday morning to hear of the death of Mrs. E. W. Ragland which had occurred about 4 o'clock. While all were acquainted with the fact that her illness had assumed a serious form, yet the reality of her passing came as a decided shock. Mrs. Ragland had been through a trying ordeal on account of the serious illness of Mr. Ragland, who has been at the Barnes hospital at St. Louis for nearly eight weeks, and the nervous strain, through which she has passed, probably made it hard for her to cope with the attack of illness. Her death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. Long.

The deceased, Nellie Muldrow Ragland, the daughter of John and Deborah Muldrow, was born Feb. 26, 1871. She was married to Brock W. Ragland, who, with the three daughters, Mrs. Hazel Long, Mrs. Beulah Holland and Mrs. Dee Peterman, are left to mourn her passing. Four grandchildren, Nellie Ruth Long, Bentah Dee Long, Albert Long and Helen Peterman, have lost one who adored them. One sister, Mrs. Daye Carpenter of Shelby also survives.

Mrs. Ragland was a member of a number of societies, a past Worthy Matron of the Eastern Star, a member of the Clarence Chapter D. A. R., a member of the Christian church here and of the Missionary society of that church.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at ten o'clock at the Christian church and will be conducted by Rev. L. P. Maggart assisted by Rev. J. S. Howard.

DEATH OF MRS. WILLIAM GERLICH 1925

Mrs. William Gerlich passed away on Thursday, July 9, at her home five miles east of Clarence at 6:30 a. m., death resulting from a cancer.

Katherine Nothnagle was born in Germany in August 1873, and was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nothnagle. While a young girl she came to America with her parents residing in Shelby county until her death.

She was united in marriage to William Gerlich in 1893 and to this union eleven children were born, one dying in infancy. Those surviving are William, of Buena Park, Calif., Louise, Margaret, John, Ernest, Dorothy, Ruth, Irene, Naomi, all at home. She is also survived by her aged parents.

Mrs. Gerlich was a noble christian woman, who patiently bore her cross. She was a kind, patient and loving mother and a good wife.

Funeral services were conducted Friday morning at 10 o'clock at Mt. Hope Lutheran church, the Rev. Victor H. Grimm, of Macon, delivering the sermon. Interment in Mt. Hope cemetery.

Lee Cook, who was married three weeks ago last Wednesday, was found dead in the road near Frank Scotts, Tuesday, about 2 o'clock, by Mrs. Neff. Mr. Cook had hitched a horse to a buggy and started from his home to Mr. Scotts about 4 miles distant, in the morning, and it is supposed died about 10 o'clock. Mr. Cook was subject to heart trouble and his death is accounted for in that way. Eld. E. M. Crow of this city held short services at the home and his remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery here Wednesday afternoon.

MRS. TACE CUMLEY

Mrs. Tace Cumley passed away Monday morning at eleven o'clock at the infirmary at Shelbyville and the remains were brought to Hopper's Undertaking Parlors at Clarence.

Mrs. Cumley was a resident of Clarence about 30 years and held membership with the Christian church. She was about 80 years of age and is survived by one son, Lawrence, of Kansas City.

A short service was held at the grave this morning (Wed.) at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. M. Harris. Interment Maplewood cemetery.

Kills Self at Los Angeles, Calif.

Clifford Simmons, son of the late Glenn C. Simmons well known to Clarence friends committed suicide at Los Angeles, California, Sunday May 7th and the sad news was received here that evening by his aunt, Mrs. Alice Simmons. He was a young man with a wife and baby girl and the message stating that he was a suicide was a great shock to his aunt and other relatives here. Clarence people sympathize with the family in their bereavement. Further particulars have not been received but it is probable that the remains will be brought here for burial.