HOLD RITES FOR LIEUT. BLANTON

LARGE CROWD HONORS YOUNG PATRIOT

Sunday afternoon a large crowd assembled at the Baptist church in Shelbyville by way of paying last tri- bute of respect to Lieut. Jack Pow- ell Blanton, who was killed in action over France on June 2.

American Legion Posts from Clar- ence, Paris and Shelbyville combined in making the service most impres- sive.

Louis Worland sang "The Lord's Prayer," followed with a prayer by Preston V. Walker, chaplain of Clarence Memorial Post.

Rev. F. Q. Crockett, Baptist min- ister, made remarks most fitting for the occasion, quoting from Lieut. Blanton's letters and diary. A tri- bute to veterans of all wars was given by Henry A. Barklew, adjutant of the Teacher Post of Shelbyville.

Following a solo "Beyond the Sun- set" by Mrs. Frank Griswold, Jr., a flag from the Teacher Post was presented from the parents of Lieut. Blanton, by Marcus Heathman, chaplain of the Monroe County Post. Rev. Crockett closed the service with a prayer.

As the crowd sat and stood in si- lence salutes were fired and taps sounded.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."—John 15:13.
