

Residence of Dr. A. L. Abell

Residence of R. T. Jackson

Residence of J. J. Hewitt

Residence of George L. Miller

Residence of N. C. Miller

Residence of Mrs. Laura Kinsey

Residence of J. W. Penn

Residence of W. C. Chick

Residence of Dr. C. P. Archer

Residence of A. H. Kennel

Residence of Attorney E. M. O'Bryen

Residence of S. O. Roberts

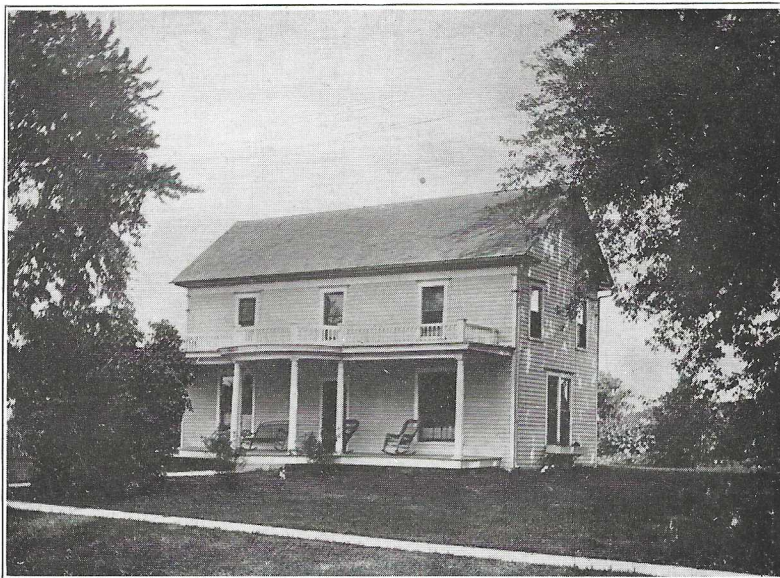

Residence of J. H. Hart

Residence of T. W. Chamberlian

Residence of A. H. Priest

Residence of E. M. Terrill

Residence of W. B. Minor

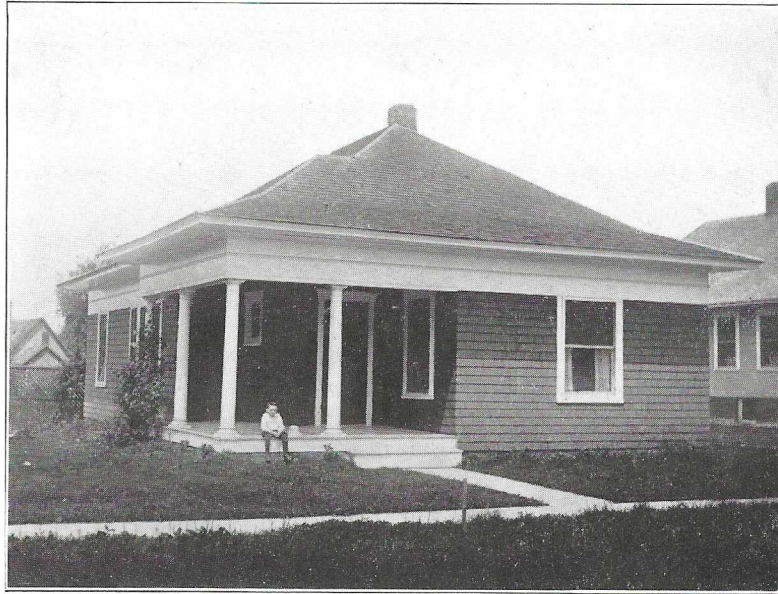

Residence of Arthur Burk

Residence of Attorney J. D. Dale

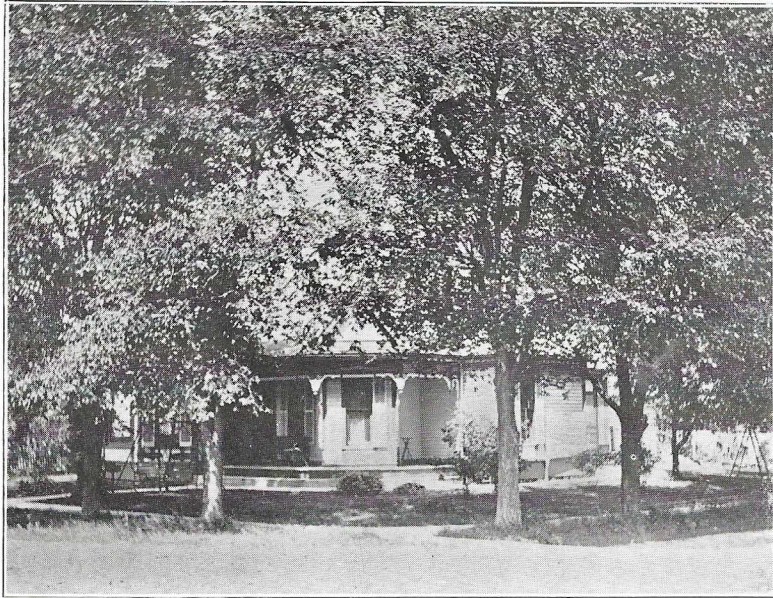

Residence of Prince Dimmitt

Residence of C. C. Meredith

Residence of Mrs. Nettie McMaster

Residence of Mrs. A. Cooper

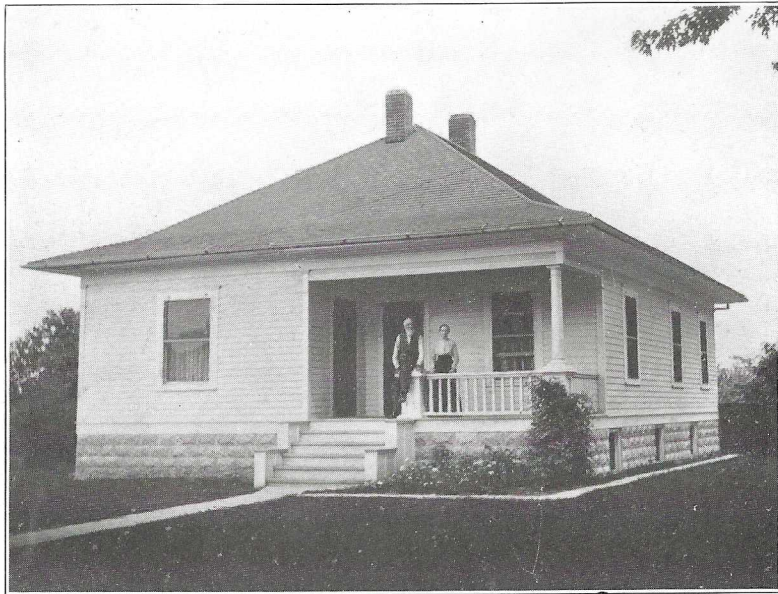

Residence of L. B. Davis

Residence of Mrs. Tom Mitchell.

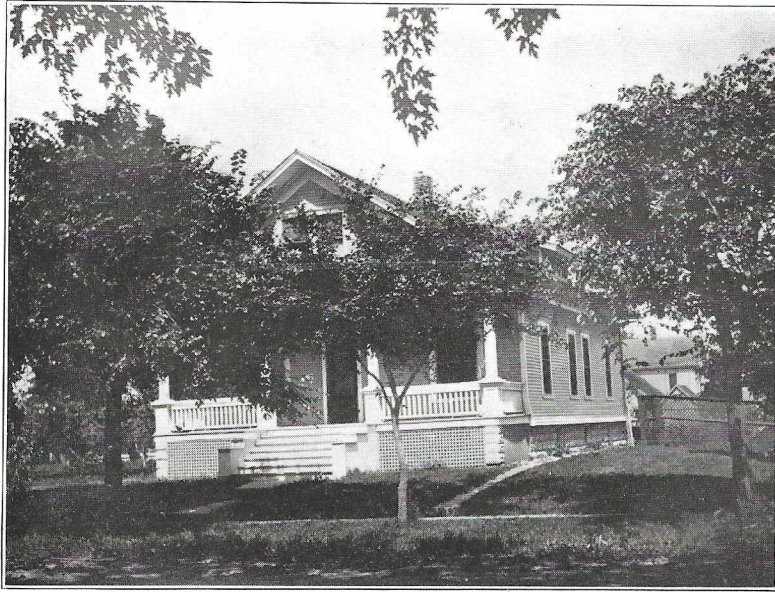

Residence of A. J. Neff

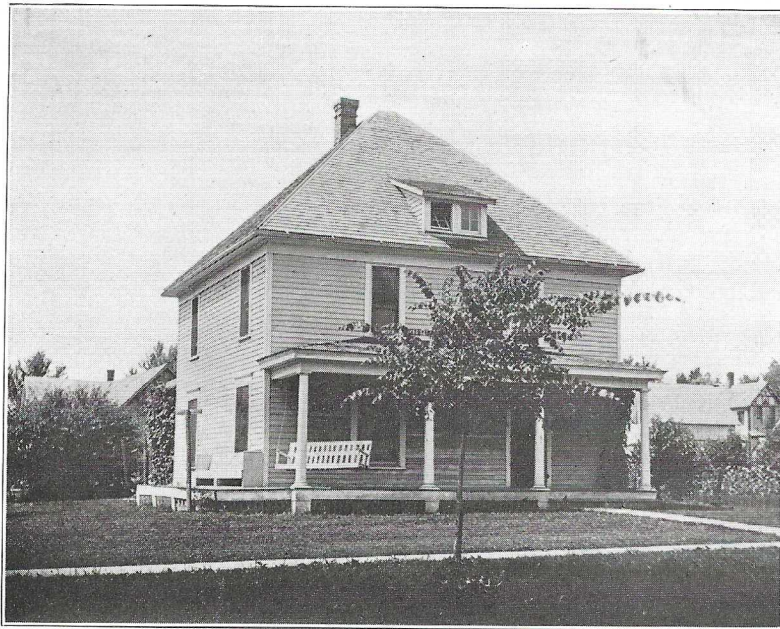

Residence of F. M. Churchwell

Residence of John Dodd

Residence of E. E. Sanders

Residence of Mrs. Belle Muldrow

Residence of J. M. Pickett

Residence of G. O. Tannehill

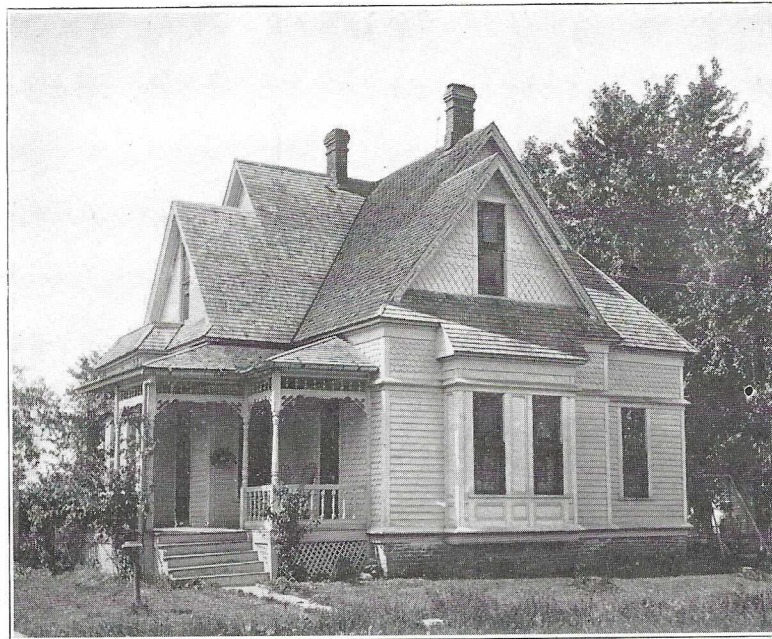

Residence of F. O. Johnson

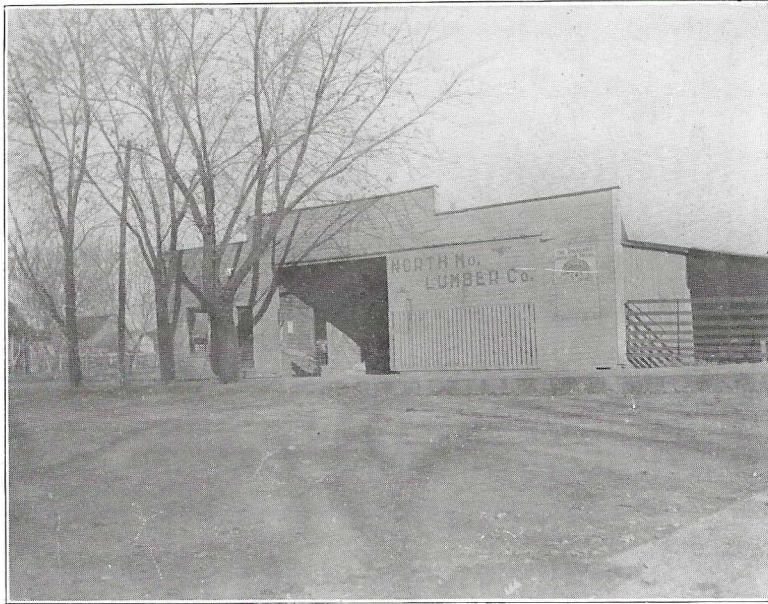

Residence of F. M. Peacher

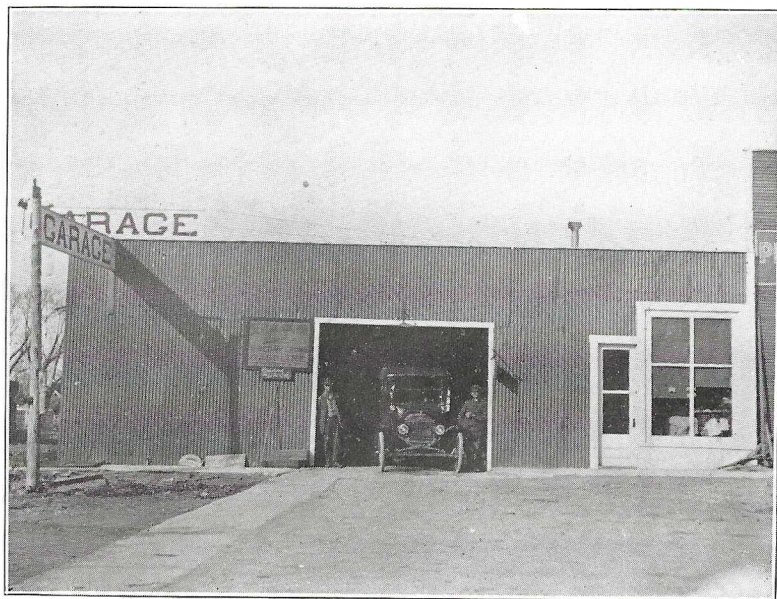

Residence of Mayor F. L. Schofield

Residence of Albert Brant

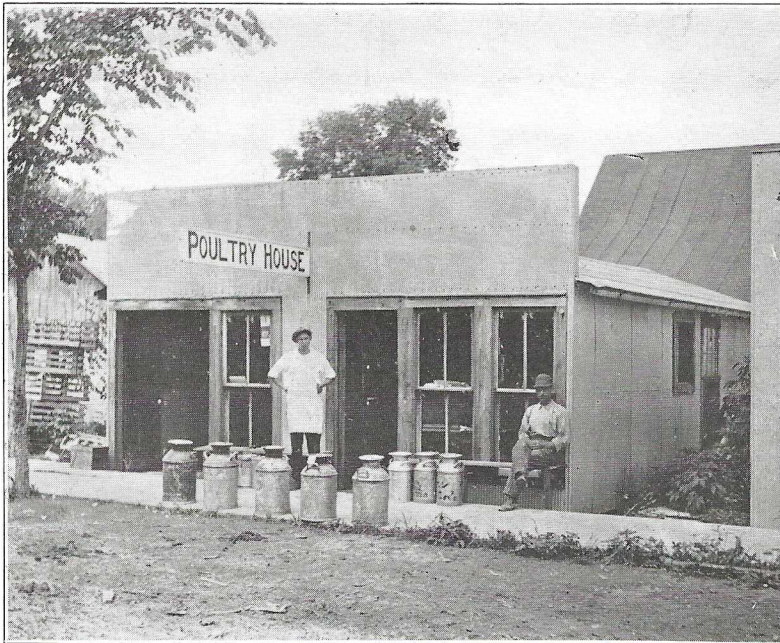

North Missouri Lumber Yard

The Ford Garage

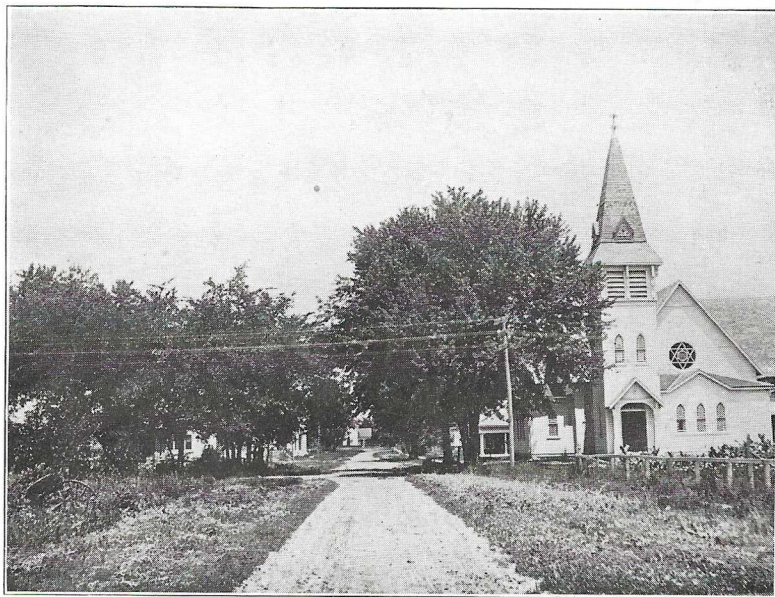

Cotton Lumber Company Yard

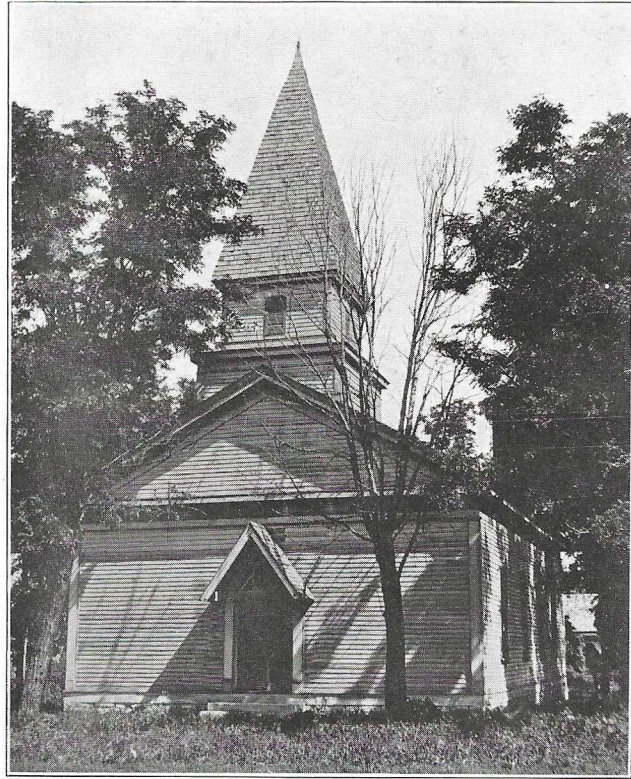

Henderson's Poultry House

Adams Street, looking north

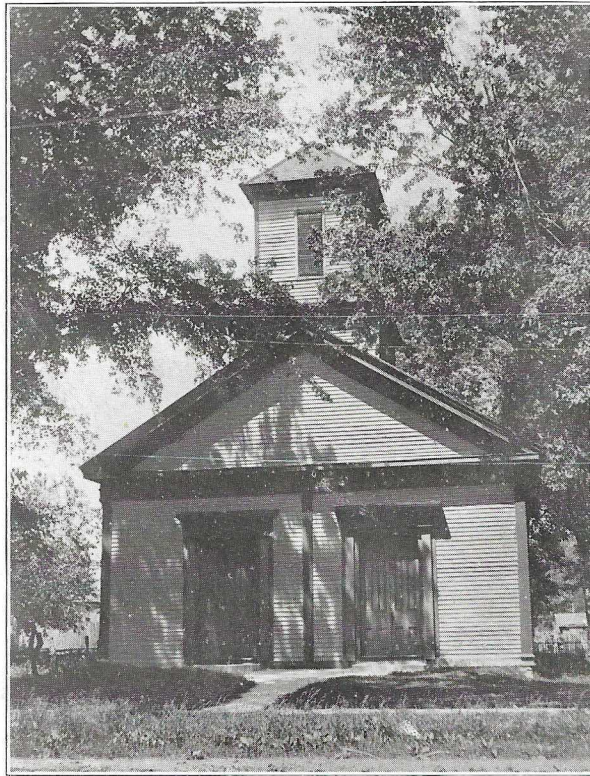

Jefferson Street, looking north

Presbyterian Church on West Main

Methodist Parsonage, occupied by Rev. J. A. Mumpower

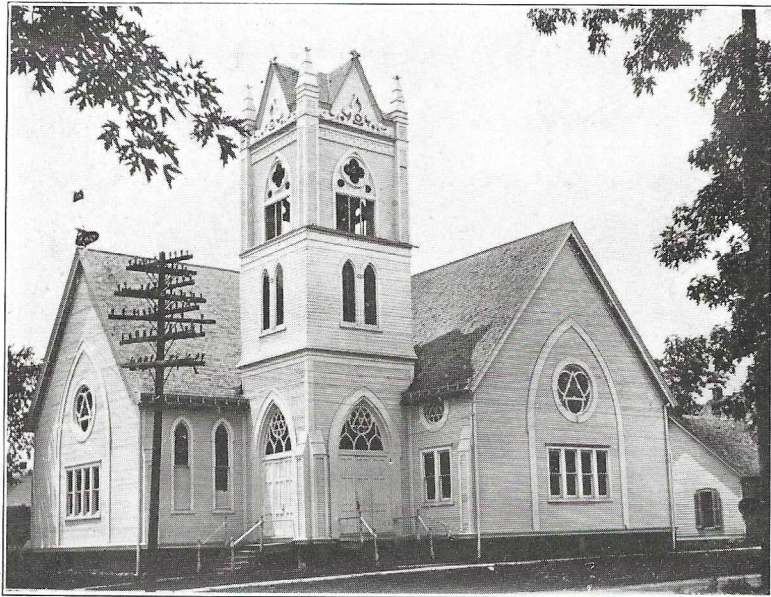

An Old Relic—M. E. Church—Used during Civil War for stable

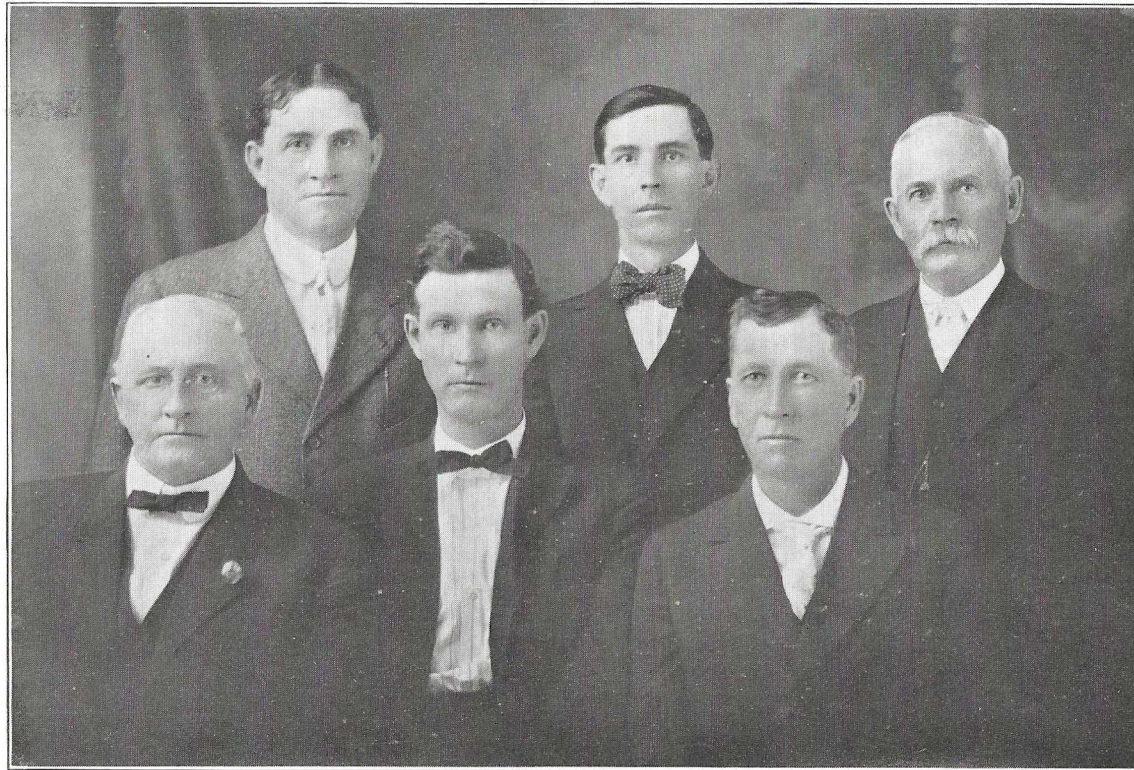

Christian Church, corner of Third and Jefferson

Baptist Church, corner of Second and Jefferson

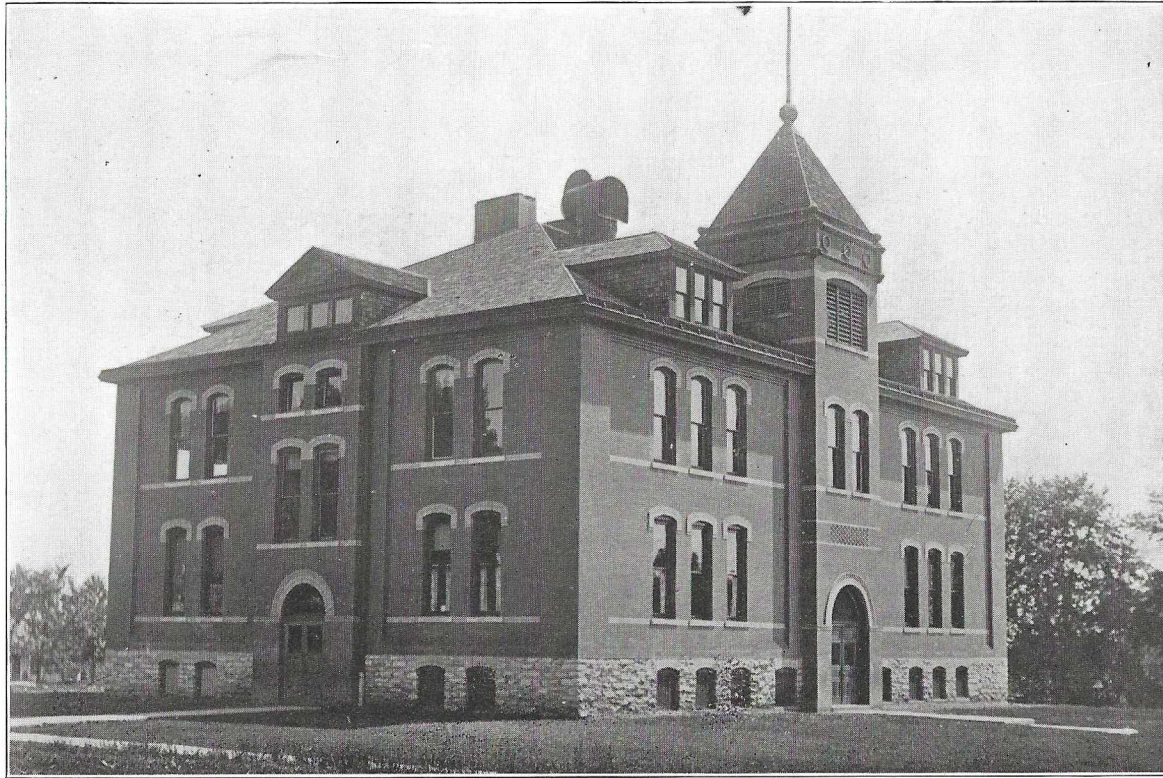

M. E. Church, South, on East Main Street

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Top Row—Dr. C. E. Salyer, E. M. Cadwell, T. B. Damrell. Bottom row—
Attorney J. D. Dale, Attorney E. M. O'Bryen, A. J. Neff.

THE SHELBYVILLE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING.

The City is Proud of Its School, as it is Not Only a Beautiful Building, but is Generously Equipped with All the Modern Appliances and Apparatus for a Practical High School Training.

School Department

Graduating Class 1915

Shelbyville High School Basket Ball Team

The Faculty

Professor R. Ralph Standley

Miss Dora Reynolds

Miss Ellen Singleton

Miss Beulah Beggs

Miss Delia Hale

Miss Nora Jamison

Miss Ora B. Epperson

Miss Ruth Beggs